Peace Talks Get Nowhere

. . . Finnegan Sees No Quick End

New York (AP) — Separate peace talks with steel strike disputants apparently accomplished little Monday. The nation's top federal mediator displayed no sign of optimism.

Joseph P. Finnegan, head of the federal mediation service, met separately with the steel industry and the striking United Steel workers in the first such talks in 5 days.

H told newsmen separate meetings would be arranged again for Tuesday. But when he was asked about the prospects of getting the two sides together in joint negotiations, Finnegan said:

"We haven' planned that far ahead."

Further, the mediator stood on his statement of last week that he foresaw no easy or early solution to the dispute that has idled 500,000 steelworkers since midnight last Tuesday.

Little 'Summit Meet' Readied

Vice President Meets Face-To-Face With Khrushchev Next Sunday

Washington (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon is reported ready to tell Russia's Premier Nikita Khrushchev of United States determination to stand unafraid in Berlin despite Soviet pressure.

Nixon is understood to be ready to stress this in a face-to-face meeting he has scheduled with the Soviet leader in Moscow Sunday.

This private Nixon-Khrushchev talk is expected to be the high point in a 13-day good will tour of Russia Nixon is set to begin Thursday.

Nixon, accompanied by some 60 newsmen and 30 government aides, will take off Wednesday by jet airliner for his first visit to the Soviet Union. President Eisenhower assigned him to the trip to open an American exhibition in Moscow.

Meet With Ike Wednesday

Before leaving, Nixon is to meet with Eisenhower at the White House Wednesday morning for a final review of the remarks he plans to make to Khrushchev during their confidential talk.

Nixon is reported bearing no special message from Eisenhower, but is ready to turn the Khrushchev meeting into a far-ranging review of such East-West issues as Berlin, disarmament, atomic testing and trade.

During the past month, he has carefully briefed himself —he has even been studying Russian—on the major deadlocks now clouding East-West relations.

May Fly To Geneva

Nixon might fly to Geneva afterward to give Secretary of State Christian A. Herter a first-hand report if Khrushchev indicates any readiness to offer concessions which might hasten a Berlin settlement.

As of now, he has no firm plans for such a Geneva stopover, but he is leaving his schedule flexible enough to arrange one if developments warrant.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) voiced hope Monday that Nixon may be able to ease East-West tension through such a confidential "give and take" with Khrushchev.

The senator said such informal person-to-person diplomacy is long overdue. He called it a sound approach and added:

"In this way it will be possible to avoid the propaganda glare of publicity which has affected too many United States visitors to the Kremlin."

Meeting At Summer Home

Nixon is to meet with Khrushchev in the Soviet leader's dachau, or summer home, on the outskirts of Moscow. He has scheduled no other activities for the day, leaving the way open for a marathon-type discussion of the kind Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) had with Khrushchev last Dec. 1.

CAB Official Explains 2 Adequate Service Factors

. . . 'Frontier, Cities Should Agree First'

Lincoln Star Special

Washington —The question of whether Frontier Airlines is required to fly more than one daily round trip through northern Nebraska cities received some additional clarification from a Civil Aeronautics Board spokesman Monday.

M. C. Mulligan, director of the CAB's Department of Air Operations, said that the extent to which Frontier is "required" to fly more than one daily schedule poses two principal considerations:

—the certificate requirement. Frontier's present certificate calls for one round trip daily.

—the adequate service requirement. Frontier's certificate also requires that it provide "adequate service" to communities in which it operates.

Misunderstanding

Mulligan said a great deal of misunderstanding has apparently grown out of overemphasis of either of the two factors in the certificates.

He said that the commmunity served and the carrier should try to arrive at an agreement as to what is adequate service.

When they fail to do this, the communities have recourse to appeal to the CAB, he said. So far, no Nebraska communities have complained to him, he added.

When asked where the responsibility for determining the adequacy of service in a given community lies, he said "primarily with the carrier."

Inadequate

In a meeting last week in Lincoln, officials of communities served by Frontier and Nebraska Aeronautics Dept. officials contended that Frontier's one-flight-a-day service is inadequate.

Frontier President Lewis Maytag declared at the meeting that Frontier would continue to operate on the basis of "good business judgment," regardless of whether the communities complain to the CAB.

Mulligan said Monday that he was awaiting a report from State Aeronautics Director Jack Obbink as to whether material progress was made at the meeting.

Obbink said the findings produced at the meeting would be presented to the CAB but declined to say exactly when that would be.

Meanwhile, Mulligan said he plans to confer Tuesday with Maytag regarding the controversy.

Omaha (AP)—Elroy Harding, 37, found unconscious Saturday night behind a Near North Side bar, was reported in poor condition at Douglas County Hospital Monday.

Four Drivers Refuse To Submit To Alcohol Tests

. . . Suspects Violate New Law

By Del Harding

Four suspected drunken drivers arrested over the weekend refused to give county lawmen body fluid samples, it was learned Monday.

The cases were the first reported in Lancaster County since passage of the new state law which requires suspected drunken drivers to give a sample of their blood or urine to be tested for alcoholic content or face having their driver's licenses suspended for one year.

Two of the cases involved arrests by deputy sheriffs, one by Lincoln police and one by the Safety Patrol.

Hearing Likely

The men who refused to give body fluid samples to Lincoln police and the Safety Patrol will be reported to the State Director of Motor Vehicles, who in turn will hold a hearing to determine if the men's driver's licenses should be revoked for one year.

No decision reportedly has been reached on whether to report the refusal of the two men arrested by deputy sheriffs.

Sheriff Merle Karnopp said he wanted to discuss the new law with Dep. Co. Atty. Paul Douglas before deciding what action to take.

Under the law, however, the arresting officer is given the duty of making the reports. City or county prosecutors have no authority to decide whether or not the refusal reports will be filed.

3 Drunk Charges

Three of the 4 men who refused to give body fluid samples were charged with drunken driving and the fourth was charged with careless driving.

First to be arrested was Ralph E. Long, 26, of 3015 So. 46th. Lincoln police arrested him Saturday night after the car he was driving was involved in a property damage accident at 28th and O.

Long pleaded innocent Monday in Municipal Court to drunken driving and his trial was set for July 30.

Property Damage

Arrested by the Safety Patrol after his car was involved in a property damage accident Sunday morning on a county road southwest of Emerald was William E. Sanders, 27, of 2002 S. He pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) to drunken driving, was found guilty, fined $100 and had his driver's license suspended 6 months.

The two men arrested by deputy sheriffs were Bob H. Thames, 23, of 2436 Vine, and Raymond E. Strauss, 27, of Thayer.

Thames was arrested at 10th and O early Sunday morning after he was observed driving the wrong way on one-way 10th St. He pleaded guilty to drunken driving, was fined $100 and his driver's license suspended 6 months.

Strauss was arrested after his car was involved in an injury accident on West VO early Sunday morning. He pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) to a careless driving charge, was found guilty, and fined $25.

BUDGET BATTLE BEGINS

Salaries Wait; First $200 Cut

By Virgil Falloon

The City Council began work on the proposed 1959-60 city budget of $13,573,265 Monday and tentatively approved some $1,173,000 during the first session.

Although there was some preliminary discussion, the Council decided to wait "until toward the end" of the budget sessions before getting into full-scale consideration of proposed salary increases.

The proposed $4,475,905 tax-supported portion of the budget would require a 15.1 mill levy, or about 1.5 mills less than last year's levy of 16.6 mills.

However, the preliminary budget does not provide for salary increases. Proposed increases totaling some $275,000 for police, fire and other city employes have been submitted to the Council.

Cut $200

In reviewing the first batch of departmental requests Monday, the Council cut only $200 from non-salary items.

Tentatively approved (without change unless noted) were:

Unlimited tax funds—judgment, $520; fire & police pensions, $208,000; social security, $145,000; auditorium, $57,062; interest and coupons,

—A-Ban Talks—

West Puts New Offer To Soviets

Geneva (AP) —The U.S. and Britain took a step Monday toward a compromise with the Soviet Union on the banning of nuclear tests. They offered to permit control posts on Soviet territory to be staffed two-thirds by Communist-appointed personnel.

The offer, described by U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth as a milestone in the 8-months-old conference, won cautious praise from Soviet delegate Semyon Tsarapkin. He said it was a step forward, but indicated it did not go far enough toward the Soviet position.

Wadsworth and the British delegate, Sir Michael Wright, told Tsarapkin the Western offer is a thus-far-and-no-further move toward the original Soviet self-inspection proposals.

Key Issue

Tsarapkin's last position on this long-disputed issue was that all but 4 of the approximately 30 technicians and 20 auxiliary personnel on any nuclear ban control post in the U.S., Britain or Russia should be citizens of the host country. The Western powers on the other hand, maintained that all but 4 of the technicians should be foreigners.

The dispute is one of the key issues of the negotiations, as the West is determined to resist efforts by the Soviet Union to police its own territory for test ban violations.

Atlas Soars

Successful Shot Follows 5 Straight Failures

Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP)—A power packed intercontinental range Atlas surged aloft early Tuesday, ending the 6 weeks suspension of this missile's test program.

The 85-foot Atlas, key weapon in the U.S. missile race with Russia, rose from its launching pad in a pool of fire and smoke at 12:21 a.m. and started into the sky in what appeared to be a smooth launching.

It vanished from sight after about 4 minutes.

The missile was crowned with a new type tactical nose cone which the Air Force prepared to recover from Atlantic depths 5,500 miles down range.

5 Failures

The Air Force and Convair Astronautics, which builds the missile, hoped for a successful shot to end 5 months of frustration. The last Atlas success was Feb. 4. Since then 5 of the big missiles have failed, 4 of them exploding shortly after launching.

Heavy instrumentation was placed on all suspected trouble spots on Tuesday's missile. It was learned a faulty fuel valve was responsible for at least the last two blowups.

Injured In Chase, Local Man Dies

A 20-year-old Lincoln resident died in a local hospital early Tuesday morning from injuries suffered in a one-car crash on a county road southwest of Lincoln last Wednesday.

The victim, Gene Houston of 852 No. 45th had been critically injured when the car in which he was a passenger rammed into a dead-end. The auto was being chased by a Crete policeman at the time of the crash.

Also injured in the accident were Richard Kalkwarf, 23, a pasenger, and Allen Kotouc, 20, driver of the automobile. Kalkwarf and Kotouc remained in fairly good condition Monday night.

The Lancaster County sheriff's office said the crash occurred 8 miles south and 3 miles west of Lincoln.

The death raised the state highway death toll to 168 as compared to 164 one year ago.

Airline, Bus, Carline Levy Set; Rail Rolling Stock Is Assessed

. . . Equalization Board Sets Hearings

By Betty Person

The State Board of Equalization Monday set the state levy for airlines, buses and railroad rolling stock and private carlines, and called a hearing for next Monday on disputed valuations on railroad terminal property in several communities.

The average state levy adopted for airlines, buses and carlines was set at 51 mills.

The valuation of railroad rolling stock was accepted at $37,652,808 using the same formula as last year, and the valuation accepted for Pullman cars was $547,649.

Railroad terminal property disputes the Board will hear and reconcile next week involve assessments in 23 communities in 7 counties.

Set Their Own

Nebraska law allows the railroad companies to set their own valuations on terminal properties, subject to agreement by the county assessors, and in the case of the City of Lincoln, the city assessor.

The protested valuations in Lincoln concern a Union Pacific valuation on $106,295 on its terminal facilities, compared with City Assessor William Schlaebitz' valuation of $136,015; the Missouri Pacific valuation of $90,135 on its property, compared with the city's valuation of $169,420, and the Rock Island's valuation of $190,980, compared with the city's $300,000.

Omaha terminal valuation differences include the Burlington's valuation of $3,145,675 on its property, compared with the Douglas County assessor's $3,320,080; Union Pacific valuation of $9,983,970, compared with the county's $11,688,255; Chicago-North Western valuation of $490,940, compared with the county's $492,010, and the M&O Division valuation of $974,300, compared with the assessor's $1,087,400; the Rock Island's $202,530, compared with the county's $247,105; the Great Western's $229,980, compared with the assessor's $230,975, and the South Omaha Terminal Railroad's valuation of $355,210, compared with the county's $368,190.

$100 Up

Valuation discrepancies in other communities throughout the state involve smaller amounts ranging from $100 to $24,000.

No state tax money is involved in the terminal valuations, because the revenue all goes to the communities in which the property is located.

Other towns in which the valuations are disputed include Trenton, Cedar Rapids, Albion, St. Edward, Primrose, Cozad, Gothenburg, Lexington, Overton, Elkhorn, Millard, Valley, Waterloo, Gering, Lyman, McGrew, Melbeta, Alexandria, Belvedere, Carleton and Davenport.

The State Board Monday also accepted written explanations from 7 counties regarding valuation decreases they reported in some classes of property this year.

Scientific Values

Several assessors reported scientific appraisals had been completed this year which resulted in lower valuations in some categories. The counties requested to answer were Arthur, Boyd, Brown, Dundy, Perkins, Sherman and Wheeler.

State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington reported he had received a letter from the Phelps County assessor protesting real estate values in Gosper County. It was agreed that efforts would be made to get both counties to appear before the Board Wednesday along with 4 others involved in protests.

The others are: Lancaster, involving a protest filed by Gage County, and Seward County, involving a protest filed by Hall County.

Two Others

The Board also will hear Wednesday from Garfield and Hamilton Counties which have been called in to explain valuation reductions.

The determination of franchise assessments against pipeline and telephone companies also is scheduled for Wednesday's hearing.

In other action Monday, the Board accepted the same depreciation schedule for interstate buses and trucks which was used last year. It ranges from 25% on new vehicles to 80% on vehicles 8 years old or over.

Geneva Climax Appears Near

'STICKING POINT' IS REACHED

. . . By Conferees

By Arthur Gavshon

Geneva (AP)—The Big 4 Monday night reached the sticking point in their quest for a Berlin truce.

All the signs suggest a critical climax is at hand in the foreign ministers' 7-week-old talks.

Unless something unexpected happens it looks as though both the Russians and the Western allies are about to dig in on what to each side is a vital principle of policy over Germany.

The issue:

Should the East and West Germans be allowed to come together by themselves to talk about the political future of their divided land?

The Russians are insisting they must do so in one way or another. Otherwise the allies must risk losing the Soviet offer of an 18-month freeze on the status of West Berlin.

The United States, Britain and France, with ranks closed at last, say "No"—the East and West Germans cannot settle their political fate alone. It's up to the Big 4 to arrange the reunion.

The Soviet leaders seem to be stiffening their international postures.

This could be diplomatic bluff intended to wreck western unity. But it could be that the Russians really mean what they say.

By Herb Altschull

Geneva (AP) — The Western powers Monday denounced Russia's German plan as "totally unacceptable" and brought in a counter plan of their own. The Russians promptly rejected it.

As the 8th week of the Geneva foreign minister conference on Germany began, East and West were as deadlocked as ever.

It boiled down to this:

The West insisted that German unification must be brought about by the Big 4 powers.

The Soviet Union on its part insisted that reunification must be worked out by the Germans themselves.

These were positions that have been held for years. Andrew H. Berding, assistant U.S. secretary of state, summed up by saying the West found "nothing encouraging" in what Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyka had to say Monday.

It was a busy day for the ministers — Gromyko, Selwyn Lloyd of Britain, Maurice Couve de Murville of France and Christian A. Herter of the United States. They met at private lunch for 2½ hours and then in a semi-public plenary session for 3 more hours.

Acklie Asks Discharge As Receiver

. . . For Harrington

Atty. Duane W. Acklie filed a petition Monday in Lancaster District Court asking that he be discharged as receiver for the Harrington Companies, Lincoln real estate partnership which was dissolved in January.

Acklie also asked that the accounting of his activities which he filed with the court be approved and that he and Atty. Robert Nelson be allowed attorneys' fees for their work on the case.

Acklie had been appointed by District Judge Harry Ankeny to take charge of the companies' assets after the firm was dissolved. The firm since has been declared bankrupt in Federal District Court.

Orders for Col. John C. Watson of Blytheville, Ark. to become LAFB's new commander have been canceled due to the death of Mrs. Watson, officials said. Funeral services were scheduled for Tuesday at Lakeland, Fla.

Deficit Is A Record

. . . For Peacetime

Washington (UPI)—The federal government closed its books on fiscal 1959 with a peacetime record deficit of $12,500,000,000, the Treasury Department reported Monday.

The red ink figure was still about $300,000,000 less than expected by President Eisenhower when he submitted the budget to Congress in January, 1958.

The preliminary tally on the year that ended June 30 showed budget receipts of $68,200,000,000 and expenditures of $80,700,000,000.

The treasury department said that receipts were slightly greater than had been expected because of the brisk business pick-up in the spring. Expenditures were somewhat below the original forecast.

Payments To Aged Increase

. . . But Numbers Fewer

The Nebraska Board of Control Monday reported that fewer persons received old-age assistance payments in June than during the same period last year, but they shared a larger amount of money.

The average cost of all types of aid to old age assistance recipients for the month was $70.09, compared to $65.92 last year, the Board reported.

This year, 15,675 received $1,098,668 compared to 16,400 receiving $1,081,013 last year.

Broken Down

The cost of each recipient is broken down into regular payments of federal-state funds, $48; matched medical vendor, federal, state, county funds, $20, and unmatched medical, county funds, $2.

For aid to dependent children, 2,819 families with 7,966 children received $298,970 this year for an average of $106 per family or $28 per recipient, compared to 2,968 families with 8,343 children receiving $310,688 last year for an average of $104 per family or $28 per recipient.

For aid to the blind, 926 cases received $78,306 this year for an average of $84, compared to 972 receiving $79,944 last year for an average of $82.

For aid to disabled, 1,570 received $118,289 this year for an average of $75, compared to 1,441 receiving 105,407 last year for an average of $73.

Couple Fair After 2-Car Collision

An elderly Lincoln couple was in fair condition with multiple injuries suffered Monday noon in a two-car crash at 8th and F.

Hospitalized at St. Elizabeth Hospital were Leonard Vermaas, 84, of 3640 Folsom, and his wife, Martha, 80, most seriously injured of the two.

Mrs. Vermaas was being treated for a fractured pelvic bone, undetermined head and back injuries and multiple cuts and bruises, police said. Her husband suffered multiple rib fractures, head injuries and cuts and bruises, the hospital said.

According to police, the two were thrown when their 1930 model car was in collission with another driven by 17-year-old Ernest I. Ryan of 1910 No. 28th. The crash occurred at a right angle.

LAUNCHING OF A-SHIP IS READIED

. . . Mamie To Preside

From Press Reports

Camden, N.J. — Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower opens a new era in shipping Tuesday when she christens the nuclear ship Savannah, the world's first atomic-powered merchant ship.

The sleek, 595½-foot-long passenger-cargo ship, described as the world safest vessel, will slide down the ways into the Delaware River after the First Lady cracks the ceremonial bottle of champagne across the steel prow.

Construction of the Savannah, named for the first steamship to cross the Atlantic Ocean, is to be completed by early next year. The $40 million vessel then will undergo about 2½ years of tests before going into full commercial operation.

Seaborne Lab

Described by President Eisenhower as a "floating laboratory," the Savannah will carry 9,400 tons of cargo and will accomodate about 60 passengers in addition to a crew of 100 to 130. It will develop a cruising speed of 21 knots on 22,000 horsepower and will be capable of sailing at full speed for 3½ years, or about 300,000 miles, without refueling.

'Definitely'

Finance Director James Mallon told the Council that "definitely some salaries need adjusting" and cited in particular that of City Treasurer Frank Miller.

"It's a ridiculous situation for the city to pay Miller $6,650 a year when he is responsible for some 80 million per year in transactions," Mallon said. "His work has also increased since he is treasurer for the school district, the Airport Authority and the Winnett Trust."

Miller, in a letter to the Council, noted he was being paid less than 9 other division heads including the library director, $9,060, auditorium manager, $9,500; hospital comptroller, $7,800, and airport manager, $8,400.

Several Council members indicated that Miller's salary wasn't high enough and would receive definite consideration.

City Atty. Ralph Nelson recommended that Deputy Atty. Norma VerMaas' salary of $6,000 should be increased to $8,000.

Inadequate

He said her present salary was inadequate for the work she was performing and also in comparison with attorney salaries in other governmental subdivisions.

Nelson also requested that the salary of Helen Stein, office manager in the legal department for 30 years, be increased.

The city attorney also strongly recommended that the city ordinances be revised and published and estimated the work would cost $10,500.

The ordinance code was last revised in 1936 and "no more copies are available," Nelson said. "It's a pathetic situation for a city of 130,000 not to have copies of its ordinances."

Other Action

In other budget action:

—Mallon told the Council that a survey is being made to see if the city's 45,000 checks per year can be handled on the city's IBM equipment.

—Nelson said a full-time prosecutor would be helpful, but said an assistant still would be needed to fill in on time conflicts.

—Next budget session was set for 2 p.m. Tuesday when the Public Works Department requests will be heard.

Two Council members, C.W.D. Kinsey and Kenneth Lewis, were absent from Monday's session. Lewis was reported ill.

Teamsters Rejected By Lau Employes

. . . 26-7 Vote

Warehousemen and drivers of the H. P. Lau Co. voted 26-7 early Monday morning that Teamsters Union Local 600 did not represent a majority of the employes engaged in the company's distributing operation.

The announcement of the election result was made by R. H. Lau, president of the wholesale grocery firm. David Kramer of Kansas City was the NLRB representative for the election, Lau said.

An official declined to comment on the result of the election.

Lau said that his firm and the union were still trying to negotiate a contract at the company's Fremont Branch. The union's contract expired at the Fremont branch April 1.

The Teamsters are the recognized bargaining agent for the Fremont branch.

Council Election By Districts Goes On Ballot In May Or November

Decision On Date Delayed At Meeting

By Virgil Falloon

The City Council Monday postponed a decision on whether to submit a petition-proposed plan for the election of Council members by districts instead of at-large to the voters in May or in November.

Based on an election commissioner's report, City Atty. Ralph Nelson said the petitions are sufficient and the issue must go on the ballot.

In an opinion on state constitutional provisions, Nelson said it is mandatory the issue go on the November ballot unless the Council exercises an optional choice of a special city election with the state primary in May.

City officials said a special May ballot would be less expensive than one in November.

The petitions, filed by C. O. Blanchard, unsuccessful Council candidate, were found to contain 1,910 valid signatures or 120 more than required.

Blanchard's petitions propose that the 6 Council members be elected by districts for two-year terms. Presently, they are elected at large on 4-year staggered terms.

Nelson said the plan must be submitted to the voters as proposed without any changes by the Council.

However, he noted several problems in the plan. It provides for an initial districting of the city, but makes no provisions for re-districting if there should be population changes or if the city annexes new areas.

'Legal Action'

It was noted by one city official that the Council can do nothing "about any deficiencies" in the plan, but they could be "challenged by an interested taxpayer in a legal action."

In other action, the Council approved plans for the proposed $135,000 Dead Man's Run sanitary interceptor sewer from 51st and Lexington to 63rd and Vine and called for bids on Aug. 5.

The Council approved on third reading an ordinance providing standards for warm air heating installations, providing for installation permits and inspections, and setting permit fees.

The new code was proposed by the Lincoln Warm Air Heating Association, comprising about 24 contractors. It was endorsed by the Lincoln Home Builders Assn., Fire Underwriters, and other interested groups.

Fees

R. A. Vestecka, association attorney, said the proposed warm air heating code and inspections would be self-supporting from fees—$7.50 for a new installation and $3 for a conversion.

It provides for a heating inspector, board of examiners and licensing of warm air heating contractors.

An association spokesman said the city had grown large enough to require such a code. He also noted that perhaps 20% of warm air installations are sub-standard and deficient installations were responsible for 3 major fires last year.

Other Council action:

Introduced, 1st Reading

—An ordinance establishing a city purchasing division in line with a city charter amendment approved last March.

—An ordinance creating a City Airport Authority and repealing ordinances in conflict. (The Authority was created under state law by the Council earlier this year.)

—An amendment to the city's fireworks code to prohibit possession of illegal fireworks. The code now relates only to their sale or discharge.

—An ordinance to provide highway commercial zoning on a tract near Cotner and R, proposed for a bowling alley and other facilities.

Passed, 3rd Reading

—Ordinance accepting the plat of Hanson Terrace subdivision near 35th and Lake and providing for street grades.

Retirement Plan For City Urged

. . . By Employes

The City Council Monday was requested to begin consideration of a pension and retirement system for city employees as authorized in a charter amendment adopted by the voters last March.

In a letter to the Council, the City Employes Association directors said, "To secure greatest benefits to the city as well as employes from this forward-looking grant of power (charter amendment), the CEA feels a co-ordinated retirement program should be begun at the earliest possible time."

Th CEA requested that a sufficient sum be budgeted for 1959-60 to employ a qualified underwriter in municipal retirement plans to make the necessary preliminary study.

Pay Half

The CEA will "pay one-half of the cost, which we estimate will not exceed $1,000."

The Council said the request would be considered during the current budget hearings. CEA officials are scheduled to appear.

Only the city's policemen and firemen are currently under a pension plan.

Counties Receive Timber Funds

The Nebraska Department of Education has distributed $11,723 of forest reserve funds to 3 counties, Commissioner F. B. Decker reported Monday.

The money is apportioned on an acreage basis to several counties in which forest reserves have been established.

Cherry County, with the largest forest area of 115,638 acres, received $6,578.

Thomas County received $5,545 for 79,898 acres, and Blaine County received $599 for 10,546 acres.

The forest reserve funds develop from the sale of forest products such as timber, seedlings, etc.

Books For The Blind— A Porthole In Darkness

By Margarethe Plum

Eight thousand five hundred volumes ranging from Dr. Zhivago to Newsweek magazine are found in the only Books for the Blind library in Nebraska, located on the first floor of the State Capitol Building.

What is the Books for the Blind library?

In 1934 the first Books for the Blind library was founded in the Library of Congress. The idea has spread until at the present time there are over 30 regional libraries in the United States.

Books for the blind, opened in Nebraska in 1952, is a service of the Nebraska Public Library Commission and in some ways is very similar to Lincoln Public Libraries.

By The Month

Books are checked out for a month. They can be renewed for a month but each time a book is returned by a borrower, another book is sent back.

This system of distributing books is rather unique.

Each borrower has a card that is kept on file in the library. On this card are listed the borrowers age and the types of books he prefers. It is from this list of preferences that the librarians choose books to be sent to the borrowers.

If the Nebraska library gets a request for a book that is not in stock, the book can be ordered from the Library of Congress or one of the 29 other Books for the Blind libraries in the country.

Personal Service

"It's a real personal service that we give," stated Mrs. Florence Sams, one of the librarians. "We get to know the people who borrow books and their families very well."

"One borrower in North Platte writes us the chattiest letters," commented Mrs. Dorothy Lessenhop, librarian. "He reads about 6 braille volumes a week, which is equal to two regular books. Once we sent him the 13 braille volumes of Gone With The Wind. He wrote and thanked us and added 'but, ladies, you should see the stack in my closet.'"

The library's borrowers range in age from two to 90 years. There are books for all of them as the library keeps two copies of each of the childrens books and 4 copies of the adult books on hand.

Though the library is in no way a correspondence school, the books on file are of such quality that they are used for supplementary reading and as reference material for pupils and teachers alike.

1,500 to 2,000

Between 1,500 and 2,000 books are loaned monthly, with new shipments of books selected by the Library of Congress arriving each month.

The library has an even distribution of all types of books, but according to Mrs. Lessenhop and Mrs. Sams, the religious and travel books are the most popular.

Library records show that 584 people read the talking books and 45 read braille. The talking books, which are read by professional readers, are recorded on plastic, nonbreakable 33 1-3 rpm records and according to Mrs. Lessenhop, often come out before the printed editions.

There is no expense involved in the sending or returning of the talking books as there are no mailing costs.

How worthwhile is the library?

Mrs. Lessenhop states, "The people are so appreciative of the facilities. It gives our readers something to do and to talk about. They just love it."

ICC Approves Rail Fare Hike

Washington (AP) —The Interstate Commerce Commission Monday authorized 10 western railroads and their subsidiaries to hike interstate one-way and round-trip passenger coach fares on selected routes.

The commission canceled a blocking order which was issued when these carriers attempted to make the increases effective last Jan. 1. The increases may now be made on one day's notice to patrons.

Changes Add $636,324 To Tax Reports

Revisions in valuations at the county level added another $636,324 to the overall value of tangible property in Nebraska Monday as several county assessors sent corrections to State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington.

Largest increase came from Lincoln County which added $362,110 to its business schedule bringing the county's total tangible property valuation to $162,367,865.

Second largest increase came from Knox County following a re-valuation of motor vehicles which resulted in the addition of $264,514 to that county's tangible property.

Cherry County added $1,500 to its tangible property valuation bringing that county's total to $125,680,697.

There were subtractions from the total tangible values as well, with Saunders County reporting correction of a typographical error which resulted in decreasing their total by $90,000. The error was made in the transposition of 2 figures.

Gosper County also reported an error which decreased its total tangible property valuation by $1,800.

Khrushchev Repeats: 'We Do Not Want War'

Warsaw (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev proclaimed again that the Soviet Union wants no war.

"We do not want war. The working classes never gained from a war. We shall win without a war."

GOVERNOR'S CONFERENCE ON CHILDREN HOLDS MEETING

More than 150 delegates from all over the state met in the Capitol Monday at the Governor's Annual Conference on Children and youth.

The purpose of the meeting was to prepare a report to be presented to the White House Conference on Children and youth March 27, 1960.

Mrs. Howard N. Kelley of Grand Island, state chairman, said the purpose of the overall program is to help youth grow up in a changing world. The plans, to grow out of the reports, are to emphasize the prevention of problems facing young people rather than cures.

The conferences are called once every 10 years to review past problems and action, and plan recommendations for the next decade.

At the Monday session, various committes prepared reports on special subjects which will later be combined into the state report.

The recommendations are to be prepared later.

Vice chairmen of the conference are Maurice Mitchell of Omaha and Mrs. A. Q. Schimmel of Lincoln.

The executive committee is:

Confidence Is The Key

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

What is it that makes a man give up security and risk everything he has for one chance at a big payoff? Is it just love when two young people get married to face the world together without a worry about the future? Why does the personal debt of the average American continue to climb to new highs every month?

There is one word which answers most of these things and the word is "confidence." It is a big and important word in all the above situations but it is, perhaps, the most significant word of all in the business of government. Nowhere do we find a better example of this than can be found today in South America and particularly in the island republic of revolution-torn Cuba. The starry-eyed and still bearded leader of the revolution, Fidel Castro, is not a political hack. The finer points of government often escape his attention but he has a certain political sensitivity.

Big Element In Government

It is the kind of sensitivity which marks such men as Harry Truman. Their actual ability may be questioned by many people but they still manage to secure enough votes to be elected. In other words, they have the confidence of the people. What was it that elected the Democrats in 1958?

It was not any new and daring program or declaration of policy. It was, more than anything else, the confidence of the American people. It was a feeling that there is greater likelihood of prosperity under Democratic administrations. This is why the 1958 results have been so difficult to analyze.

★

This is also why Cuba may be in for a long and bitter experience. Because he is smart enough to see the handwriting on the wall, Castro has cast his lot with the vast middle and lower class population of Cuba. He has, in effect, placed his fate in their hands with promises of a new kind of freedom and prosperity if they want to accept him as their savior.

In this, Castro has the strength of numbers and he may be right that this is the greatest security he could find. The security of wealth has proven in the past to be pretty insecure. Money cannot fire a gun. With his agrarian land reform program, Castro has convinced the poor people of Cuba that they will some day become financially independent.

This is the bait with which he gets their confidence. But it has created a lack of confidence elsewhere which has been a thorn in Castro's side. When money cannot fire a gun, nothing else can fire one, either, until money has provided it. It is not vital at this time that Castro engage in large defense spending but it is important that funds be spent in other ways.

Before Castro can get his land reform measure going, other parts of the economy must move forward. Workers must be provided jobs but construction this summer in Cuba has dropped off nearly two-thirds from last year's level. Farm workers must have credit between sugar harvesting seasons but the sugar plantation owners are reluctant to give it.

They lack confidence that they will have the land next year on which the workers can toil to pay back the credit extended to them. People with money are not investing in anything but, rather, are saving their wealth because of the insecurity which pervades throughout the island. If Castro had the confidence of the upper classes to the same degree he enjoys among the rest of the population, he would be a success, even if it were in spite of himself. But until he secures this, he must continue to play with the kind of odds he has elected to give himself.

Investment At Standstill

He must pit the power of the masses against the traditional power of political influence and wealth. It means Castro has built in a basic conflict that would be hard to resolve for even the most skilled statesman. It means that times in Cuba will be turbulent for perhaps a very long period in the future.

City Budget Encouraging

While it would be misleading to indicate there will be any tax cut on the Lincoln budget this year, the figures the City Council has to deal with are still encouraging. They are encouraging because every department request could be granted with the mill levy going down. The mill levy, of course, will probably not go down because the Council must consider city employes' salaries and this item alone could more than eat up the cushion now seen.

But this is much better than the situation in the past has generally been, when requests before salary considerations demanded income that called for a hike in the tax levy. There are two areas, of course, where the taxpayers are paying the bill but not seeing it in their tax statements for general city operation. This is in streets where a new wheel tax is carrying the load and in sanitary sewers where a use fee is assuming the burden.

But it is significant that for the first time in the city's recent history, it may be possible to obtain the proper wage scale for city employes and still not strike a fatal blow against taxpayers. This can be done, too, in the face of substantial outlays in other areas of need. Parks, for instance, will be able to improve some on the Dutch Elm Disease control program, to start a children's zoo, to begin improving Woods Park at 33rd and O and to hard-surface some roads in Pioneers Park.

Throughout the proposed 1959-60 city budget are improvements in operation and equipment and the strengthening of the personnel force. The Council, of course, will give careful review to all budget items and there will be many deletions and additions before the final answer is known. But the Council starts its task this year from one of the most favorable positions in which it has ever found itself.

A Phenomenon Of The '50's

The 1960 Department of Agriculture soil bank program plans to pick up 227,000 acres in Nebraska at a lease price of $12.50 an acre.

That would be the equivalent of 1,135 two hundred acre farms.

Spread over the national scene it means the soil bank aspires to take 28 million acres out of production. This would mean a $375 million annual outlay from public funds.

If future America ever gets time to write a commentary on its amazing decade of the '50's there is no doubt the soil bank program will get a full chapter, for it is both saint and sinner, an example of an administration that would think so far, but not all the way.

The program is a correction in the treatment of overly efficient agriculture which is producing more than the nation can consume, and doesn't clearly see how it can safely desist. It recognizes the fact that retiring land is a true curb to production, whereas retiring land operators is not. Although the administration has worked to purge agriculture of millions of operators it has only succeeded in transferring the land to fewer owners who make it yield as much or more per acre than ever.

But a 10 year soil bank program at $12.50 per acre annual amounts to public payments in the sum of $125 an acre for something the purchaser can never possess—all for a kind of temporary relief which at the termination of the program period will bring back the surplus with explosive force.

An academic argument in justification of this might be made out of evidence that in 10 years or so there will be sufficient population increase to absorb all of the production all of the land can provide.

But the historical record says otherwise. During the past 50 years the nation has grown fabulously. But its productive farm land for 80 years has held relatively constant and has actually declined since 1920.

Phrase Of Prejudice

President Eisenhower opened the week with another protest against federal spending—this time with special emphasis on a freehanded Congress and its generosity toward new reclamation projects. The President has expressed a willingness to go along in some measure with work in progress, but is opposed to starting new ones.

The opportunity to express himself resulted from a letter from Rep. John Tabor, of New York, who asked the President's views on what he termed "this pork barrel type of legislation."

In hanging the pork barrel descriptive to reclamation Rep. Tabor evidenced enough prejudice to make his letter unnecessary. Tabor's personal views are his own, for what they are worth. But his attempted smear of a public activity of a distinctively non-pork barrel nature requires attention. Both he and Mr. Eisenhower should not identify things they do not like with such decaying forces as inflation and pork barrel.

Mr. Eisenhower is faced with an inflationary trend, more due to staggering defense necessity than to the ordinary activities of domestic government. Building greater national resources whose ultimate effect is to increase taxable income and provide more individual prosperity is not inflationary. Rather it is one of the greatest forces to be employed when federal cost of living begins to outrun the current economy. If the President persists in opposing greater national income and rather turns to gimmicks like federal bond interest rate increases he is actually heightening the pressures of inflation, for higher interest rates do not increase national wealth, they simply redistribute it.

By his own definition Rep. Tabor would have described his own party's Homestead act of 1863 a championship piece of pork barrel. It dipped into federal reserves and gave thousands of farms to settlers. Yet it was one of the nation's greatest pieces of long range good. It turned busy hands into a piece of resources development which at once drowned the post Civil War inflationary trend and provided sufficient new economic activity to place the United States in the class of the world's major nations.

Rep. Tabor, evidently has not gathered in the true meaning of the great debate that consumed Congress for a number of sessions after 1865. The flood of fiat money that was published by Congress to finance the war was a spectre of peace time inflation to make a nation pale. The debate was how to make this money solid. It was inconclusive because the money experts lacked the elements of remedy. But the debate died because the money became valid in an unanticipated manner. The development of the human and natural resources of the Middle West did the job: created new income, developed new markets and breathed value into erstwhile shin plaster money.

Treasury Ponders Inspection Trip

Washington — Rear Adm. James Hirshfield, the coast guard's second in command, packed his family into a government Skymaster last month and took off for a European vacation at the taxpayers' expense.

The trip was listed officially as an "inspection tour," but he assembled the most curious "inspection party" in Coast Guard annals. Included were his wife, his daughter, Mary, his son James Jr., and his brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Casey Hirshfield and their daughter Denise. The son also brought along his college classmate, William Delaney.

Besides the Hirshfield clan, space was found in the plane for Rear Adm. Edward Thiele, his wife and daughter. He is the Coast Guard's engineering chief.

The vacationing families also brought along Lt. Cmdr. Robert Rea to handle baggage, and Cmdr. Robert Waldron to fly the plane.

Their whirlwind tour took them to England, Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Italy, France and Spain.

After inquiries at the Coast Guard were ignored, this column reported the unique trip to Admiral Hirshfield's boss, Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson, who promptly ordered an inspection of the admiral's "inspection party."

Vivacious Sen. Allen Ellender of Louisiana is probably the most traveled solon in the Senate. Every year he takes a trip to various parts of the world on the theory that as a member of the appropriations committee he should check on expenditures by American embassies and information agencies.

In other directions also Senator Ellender is a versatile man. He is an expert on sugar, an excellent cook, and a collector of antiques.

Visiting in La Paz, Bolivia, sometime ago, he admired the collection of Incaic cups belonging to Mrs. Edward Sparks, wife of the American ambassador.

"You know, I'm a great collector of cups. I don't have any pre-Colombian cups at all," observed the senator from Louisiana, referring to the fact that Mrs. Sparks' cups predated Christopher Columbus.

"Oh, how interesting, senator," replied Mrs. Sparks quite firmly.

This ended the conversation until a year later, when Senator Ellender again visited Ambassador Sparks, this time in Caracas, Venezuela.

"Oh, I see you still have those beautiful Incaic cups," he remarked to Mrs. Sparks.

"Yes, we still have them," replied Mrs. Sparks. "And I intend to keep them."

Both Parties At Loss For New Aims

WASHINGTON — A growing number of organization politicians in both parties are unhappy as they square off for the big 1960 push.

To suit them there is far too much conversation about policy and programs and not nearly enough partisan politicking and cold maneuvering to take advantage of the other side's mistakes.

It may seem too early to the outsider. But the pros know that decisions taken now may affect the outcome and almost surely will tell who is going to command each party, win or lose, when it's over.

Republican conservatives eve sourly the Eisenhower-blessed GOP policy committee headed by Charles Percy of Chicago which will report to the President around September 1. They have been tipped off that it will announce goals they dislike to vote for or against.

A growing number of Democrats find equally distasteful the controversy between National Chairman Butler and the Southern congressional leadership. They want both sides to train their guns on the Republicans, Vice President Nixon and the Eisenhower administration. They will throw in Gov. Nelson Rockefeller as soon as they see the whites of his eyes.

So far as they are concerned, neither the Rayburn-Johnson record in Congress nor Butler's carping on it are doing any good for the Democratic candidates who run next year, including that mystery man, the presidential nominee.

It is interesting that neither of the major party headquarters here has organized to deal with the fact that the 1960 campaign is going to be very different from the seven which immediately precede it. It was almost a foregone conclusion that the depression issue would elect Franklin Roosevelt in 1932. Thereafter come six presidential campaigns dominated by depression, war or cold war, and the powerful personalities who dealt with them from Roosevelt through Truman to Eisenhower.

It is not exactly true that "them days are gone forever," but all elected politicians have sensed that they are increasingly confronted with a changed electorate and conditions for which old heroes and old devices have little meaning. Some of the most astute ones simply retired from Congress; others were beaten last fall.

Yet Washington, which might be expected to produce a national sense of direction, is more bogged down than usual in stale bickering over ideas that either did or did not serve their turn. Neither party is leading public opinion or even following it.

GOP Chairman Morton concentrates on keeping the peace in his ranks. His opposite number, Butler, has another system; he keeps the conflicts alive in the apparent belief this will be accepted as proof of creative vitality. Neither is getting any dazzling results.

Hence the outcry from the organization men who seem to feel that the pratical solution is to persuade the voter that everything is the fault of the other party. They at least have a point in the absence of ideas and agreement.

LA VERNA HASSLER

Patchwork Prairie Country

Yesterday we watched the storm clouds gather around us — great, dark, ominous clouds that told us treacherous weather was brewing. Slowly they moved across the sky until they were east of our farm. We stood at the back door and heard the roar and saw the green-gray coloring of the sky . . . and knew it was hail.

After the sky had cleared, we drove around the area and found that two miles east hail had stripped the corn and milo. As we traveled south, the water gushed over the roads and lakes of foaming water stood in the fields. After the hail, six inches of rain had fallen. A large flock of sheep stood, bleating, at the edge of a creek that had overflowed its banks. The current was swift and frightening and so they chose to go back up the hill for the night instead of returning to the farmyard.

It was a devastating sight and thoughts of thankfulness that it had not happened to us flooded our minds, while at the same time a pang of sympathy clouded our thoughts. With farm neighbors, there is always that sameness of feeling. One man's misfortune is shared by those around him.

We had green peas from the garden today — the first I might add. This is late in the season to be picking the first peas, but not when you consider they were planted the last week in May. That is much too late for planting peas but the cool wet weather made them grow by leaps and bounds. The crop will not be as heavy as I had anticipated but we will have all we want to eat.

The beans are hanging thick but not quite large enough for eating. We have been having summer squash in their place and if the grasshoppers do not find the tomatoes, we should be feasting on them soon. I planted a dozen hybrids which I am eying critically. I have never had them before but according to those who have raised them, they are something special, so I am expecting something spectacular from them.

The sweet corn is having quite a struggle. One night after a heavy rain and wind, the plants were almost flat on the ground, heading south. They almost got where they were heading as their roots were torn from the ground, but after a few days straightened. The wind and rain beat them from the other direction a few nights later and I found them heading north. I almost gave up hope but despite my doubts they managed to straighten again and now the tassels are waving from the crowns.

Another wind and we will probably have crescent-shaped roasting ears that hug the mouth with each delicious bite. No other roasting ear will be able to make that claim!

Ten downy little ducks are being raised for Thanksgiving dinner and other holiday fetes. Blue Jeans hasn't quite reconciled himself to the fact that they will be our dinner.

One little fellow literally bit off more than he coud chew and stood shaking head back and forth with a morsel almost as big as he. He shook his head back and forth with such vigor that he went tumbling over backward. By that time he decided food wasn't really that important and went wobbling off with the rest of them.

A duck is as much a pig as a pig is himself for they will eat and eat until they can hardly move about. Most of the time, they don't. After eating and drinking they line up around the watering pan, sporadically dipping their beaks in for a drink.

What more could they ask for? In duck language their satisfaction means "This is really living!"

Terry's Record

Howells, Neb.

It has been demanded so often that Nebraska must have men of higher stature to carry out the mandates of its electorate, men who can easily yield a profit, men like Terry Carpenter who earned his keep and many millions besides. Think of it—by dint of application to what he deemed his duty and apt follow-up, amid scoffing, well night single-handed, he got a bite on $23 million from the money sacks of those who had been playing hide-and-seek. Remember Crosby and his farcial "Operation Honesty"? Terry is now the talk of the town! It seems that this indefatigable man may yet rise to occasions just ahead. He need only discipline himself to a particle more of that virtue, consistency. Though a common man's man, he should cease worrying us with perennial sales tax bills. Once on the better course, we all will see to it that next things come next.

Once there was a leader of his people, an American, a true son of Mexico, President Cardenas. Though unsung in the USA, this man singlehanded doubled the number of family farms just over the Rio Grande. And our Scottsbluff fellow man may well emulate the feat of neighbor Cardenas who knew every problem of his native land and strove hard for mitigation, for he had spent long years sojourning in the thousand villages, observing and listening to free men and peons. He did so much for his impoverished people that he can truly be rated as the bringer of civilization and the one responsible for establishing it firmly.

A vigorous toast and good hunting to Mr. Carpenter.

Union Wages

Lincoln, Neb.

The President has gone on record as opposed to the $1.25 minimum on wages and against extending coverage to others not now covered. This, then, means that $50 for 40 hours of work is, to use his words, "inflationary." This requires no comment.

Using Lincoln as an example, and speaking for a majority of the workers, the only examples of so-called "high-wages" in town are paid by major companies such as Western Electric, Goodyear, and a few others. These high standards are maintained only because of strong unions — as an example, the railroads.

Is it any wonder that unions become bigger and stronger? James Hoffa is under fire for his questionable activities. Just the same, ask a local truck driver his opinion of Hoffa and he'll reply something to the effect that, crook or not, we still get two bucks an hour.

The President's actions will do much to further the cause of labor leaders such as Hoffa.

Harlan Dam Land

Lincoln, Neb.

Your editorial of July 18 was a remarkably fine explanation of the situation regarding the bill introduced in the U.S. Senate to sell public lands near Harlan Dam and thus deprive the public of wonderful recreational facilities.

Our Nebraska Game and Fish Commission could develop this public land for wildlife habitat and ideal hunting areas.

It is hoped that Nebraskans will protest before it is too late, as areas for public hunting will soon be a thing of the past unless we do something about it.

As Sen. Carl Curtis introduced the bill to sell this land for agricultural purposes, every sportsman should write a protest to Sen. Curtis at once.

MERRITT C. PEDERSEN
Secy. Nebr. Council Sportsmen's Club

Editor's Note: Following is the letter which Dr. Pedersen has forwarded to Sen. Curtis:

"It may be that I do not understand the full problem regarding the motive or the influence exerted on you to introduce a bill to sell public lands about Harlan Dam. But I wish you would explain why, after Sen. Hruska introduced practically the same bill last year and it died in committee, you would champion this bill again.

"I am sure you are misinformed and I feel you should visit with representatives from wildlife groups in Nebraska to discuss the best future as to recreational and wildlife development in this area for Nebraska.

"Also, please explain, with over-production, farm subsidies, etc. costing taxpayers millions already, that you should wish this land returned to agricultural production when it has a tremendous value for wildlife recreation areas, and the public in general will be the loser if your bill is approved."

Care Of The Ill

Bladen, Neb.

I wish to write a few lines on the nursing homes, the way I see it. First of all, they should be run by people who have an understanding of illness and people with kind dispositions who will do unto others as they would have others do unto them.

Those who are ill should be provided with more than just a little space to sit in, day in and day out. Such confinement soon gets an ill person down, and much sooner than if he were at home.

The nursing homes should have a car that could take the patients out for a ride as often as possible. And most of all they should have the type of food that builds health. A good doctor should call regularly to see if anyone is in need of medicine.

We must do better for those who are ill than we have done in the past and are doing now.

'Reign Of Terror' Charged To Trujillo

Washington (UPI) — Opponents of Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo charged Monday that the Dominican strongman has started to purge his close associates in a "new reign of terror."

These sources, who asked to remain anonymous, claimed that Trujillo has become increasingly suspicious and fearful that his 30-year-old regime may be overthrown.

They cited the mysterious death last Friday of Ramon Marrero Aristy, labor minister of the Dominican Republic and Trujillo's press officer. Marrero died in a flaming car wreck in the Dominican mountains shortly after returning from a trip to Washington and New York.

Talk Of Overthrow

Marrero was said to have talked to friends in the U.S. about the possibility of overthrowing Trujillo and taking over leadership of the Dominican Republic himself.

(In Miami last week, Marrero told friends that if word of his statements got back to Ciudad Trujillo, "then I'm dead.)

Trujillo's dictatorship also is facing growing opposition from his neighbors, although his well-armed military establishment quickly crushed two armed invasions apparently mounted in Cuba.

Meanwhile, the U.S. State Department indicated it was taking a dim view of a visa application from ousted Cuban president Fulgnico Batista. Batista fled to the Dominican Republic when Fidel Castro took over Cuba last January.

Commissioner Harlan 'Good'

County Commissioner Ralph Harlan was reported in "very good" condition Monday at a local hospital.

Harlan was hospitalized Saturday with a virus infection.

Commissioner Kenneth Bourne, who visited Harlan Monday afternoon, said Harlan has some paralysis in his arms and legs but is cheerful.

Harlan's attending physician said tests disclosed he does not have polio. He said he does not know how long Harlan will be hospitalized.

Bad Intersection Given Blame For Crash Injuring 10

Lincoln Star Special

Beatrice, Neb. — A partly obscured intersection of two rock roads was blamed by Sheriff Ned Maxwell for the two car crash Sunday night in which 10 Gage County young people were injured.

Maxwell said the intersection 10 miles north and two miles east of Beatrice has no stop signs and is obscured by high weeds. Both cars involved skidded about 75 feet, he stated.

Miss Lanoma Cornelius, 16, was in critical condition in an iron lung Monday, suffering severe shock and other injuries. Darlene Johnson, 15, suffered severe chest injuries. All were taken to Beatrice hospitals.

Injured to lesser extents were Eugene Wallman, 17; Shirley Jurgens, 16; Ronald Schlake, 21; Peggy Boesiger, 15; Hilry Trauernicht, 19, Caroline Schultz, 16 and drivers, Eldon Cramer, 17 and Marvin G. Huls, 17.

According to Maxwell the westbound car driven by Cramer, met the southbound Huls car almost headon.

She was a lifelong resident of the Filley Community. Survivors include her husband, Renken G.; one daughter, Mrs. Emma Ulrich of Virginia, Neb.; two sons, John R. Fossler and Harvey H. Fossler, both of Beatrice; three brothers Eilert Forden of Filley, John Forden of Lincoln and Renken Forden of Virginia; 3 sisters, Mrs. Lillian Johnson, of Imperial, Mrs. Lena Aden of Wymore and Mrs. Minnie Saathoff of Beatrice, and 10 grandchildren.

Complaint To Be Dropped By Beatrice

Beatrice, Neb. (AP)—A complaint before the Civil Aeronautics Board concerning Frontier Airlines service to Beatrice will be dropped, according to Chamber of Commerce transportation chairman Charles Harman.

Harman commented following a meeting in Lincoln between Frontier officials and representatives of Nebraska communities served by the airline.

The Beatrice complaint, filed June 24, objected to announced changes in one of Frontier's schedules through Beatrice which took effect July 1.

The early morning flight to Kansas City, which provided 42% of the total airline boardings here, was dropped and was replaced by a noon flight.

Harman said Frontier agreed to restore the early morning departure to Kansas City and evening return from Kansas City this fall if experience proves that the southbound flights on the old schedule are more desirable.

Stan Delaplane's POSTCARD

Our dog, Inc., the world's only incorporated dog, disappeared a week ago. He was at his normal pursuit — he herds lizards — when we drove down to the village. And when we came back he was gone.

When he did not come back all night, we called the police and the pound. But no result. He was a very good dog and we are pretty upset.

☆ ☆ ☆

Inc. came to us several months ago as a puppy. He chewed things until I was distracted.

Mainly he chewed our 4-year-old son's pants. He got the child by the seat of the pants. And the child tried to run one way while the dog tugged in the other direction.

What with thisaway and thataway the seat of the pants went every whichaway.

That poor boy never had a pair of pants with a seat in it. He had no more seat in his pants than a pair of Mexican chaps. However, it never bothered us except when I took him downtown. Then I made him wear a raincoat.

☆ ☆ ☆

I had this dog incorporated because he was supported by a corporation I had lying around the house. I thought maybe it would give him prestige.

(He was mainly Australian shepherd, but his mother was a war bride.)

There was a chance that this dog was kidnaped for his money.

If so, I hope the people will return him. This corporation was just something we kept on the shelf to give ME prestige.

For a good many years my wants were simple and I had a salary to match. We do not spoil the help in the newspaper business and one of the most modest pay checks was reserved for me.

However, I was happy enough and knew just where my money went. I got it on Friday. I went across the street to Hanno's Happy Haven for gentlemen journalists. And I cashed it — paying off the weekly nudge I had run up during the moment of truth.

When I was paroled from the dailies, I increased the living wage and moved into our suburban paradise.

In our neighborhood, you cannot have an ordinary scatter. It must be approved by a real estate board—so you should not run down the property values.

I quit cashing my checks in aperitif parlors and put it in the village jug. The banker and I had a dignified nodding acquaintance.

I got a barbecue pit so we did not have to cook comfortably in the house like the squares. I got a couple of agents and a couple of lawyers and a Brooks Brothers blazer.

I also got a corporation which is nearly as important in our set as an outdoor barbecue. Oh, yes, I got three shares of Ford stock.

☆ ☆ ☆

Now a man in that position has POSITION. I mean I quit reading the comic strips on the commute bus. I looked at the FINANCIAL page!

I looked at it and I looked worried. Anybody could see I was a man of substance. A man who did not pay off the weekly nudge with a paycheck. A man who was up to his Brooks Brothers collar in plenty debt.

I also got myself a psychiatrist, a hypnotist and a twice-yearly checkup by a fancy doctor. (I used to just take an aspirin. But noblesse oblige, you know how it is.)

The only really ordinary thing we had around the place was this ordinary dog. And the ordinary boy with no seat in his pants.

Pride goeth before a fall. Nothing would do but I must give this dog my corporation —I kind of lent it to him. Anyway, he was supported out of corporate funds and I think he had a piece of my corporate attorney therefore.

And I suspect some dastard read about this dog. And come around and lifted him. That is what I think. So please bring him back.

True, the boy now has pants with a seat in them. But he misses the dog. And, to tell you the truth, so does the corporation.

NU Student From Red Cloud Wins $500 Scholarship

A University of Nebraska senior from Red Cloud, Fredrick A. Bliss, will receive the $500 F. D. Keim Memorial Scholarship for the 1959-60 school year.

Bliss is majoring in technical agronomy at the College of Agriculture and intends to continue graduate study after completion of his bachelor's degree.

He was awarded the Forney Foundation and a University Regent scholarship in 1956-57 and the Delta Tau Delta and Corn Cob Scholarship in 1958-59.

Bliss is secretary of the Innocents Society and Farm House fraternity; vice president of Corn Cobs and All University Fund and a member of Alpha Zeta.

The Keim scholarship is awarded each year to a senior in the College of Agriculture who shows interest in genetics and plant breeding.

ONLY 7% WILL BE FARMERS IN 15 YEARS, ECONOMIST PREDICTS

A Minnesota agricultural economist predicted that at the end of the next 15 years only 7% of the population will be classified as farmers, compared with 12% today.

Dr. Sherwood O. Berg of the University of Minnesota spoke at the one-day Conference on Patterns in Rural Education, held at the University of Nebraska.

"Socially, the American farmer is being involved in a process of desegregation. Up to the recent past, the rural school, rural church, and other social organizations of the countryside were of, by and for, farmers and their families."

Explaining that this situation has changed drastically, the educator said that there were 113,600 one-room schools in 1940, but 15 years later the number did not exceed 30,000.

Dr. Berg added that "there are wonderful opportunities for young men and women with farm backgrounds to train themselves for fine careers in industries related to agriculture."

"For instance, a low proportion of our college graduates return to farms, possibly 8 to 15%. About one-half move into industries associated with the processing of agricultural products or serving and supplying farmers with requisites required for the farm business."

He urged that emphasis be placed on keeping rural people properly informed in occupational outlook and opportunities.

Dear Abby . . .

About-Face!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I once hear an old lady say, "When children are young they step on your toes and when they are older, they step on your heart." These are the truest words I have ever heard.

My daughter is 12 and she knows everything. She has no respect for anyone. She is a pretty girl but has the ugliest diposition I ever saw for a girl her age.

The kids get worse every day. Is it because they get too much? I know I am not the only mother with this problem because I hear other mothers say the same thing. I wish you could give me some good advice. I am at my wits' end. MRS. C.

DEAR MRS. C.: By the time a child is 12, you either have the CHILD trained or the child has YOU trained. Giving a child "too much" will not spoil him unless he has had too little discipline. It's pretty late for new rules at your house, but if I were you, I'd get in the driver's seat and lay down the law.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: We had the sad experience of losing a premature baby girl. She lived only five days. We named her.

We are wondering if it would be proper, if and when we have another little girl, to give her the same name? We loved that name.

PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: It would be proper. The decision is entirely up to you.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am 33, divorced and have a 6-year-old daughter. I've been going with a widower who has a 9-year-old son. He is well-to-do and would make an ideal husband.

He says he is very fond of me, and I know I love him. Should I wait and hope that some day he'll break down and marry me? I don't want a steady date. I want a husband. HOPING

DEAR HOPING: You could "break down" before he does. If this man really had his son's best interests at heart, he would marry a good woman and give his son a normal home life. The "wait" could be a lifetime.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Is there a cure for snoring? My wife snores something fierce. It's not just an ordinary snore. She sounds like a B-29 taking off. When I nudge her, there will be a lull for about 30 seconds. Then she starts up again—only in a different key and usually much louder. She falls asleep the minute her head hits the pillow. I can't, and her snoring keeps me awake most of the night. Can you help me? L. V. D.

DEAR L. V. D.: Far as I know, there is no sure cure for snoring. You have two choices. Ear plugs or separate bedrooms.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: What would you do if you had a brother who was 12 and he loved model airplanes? When I am trying to get dressed he comes into my room with a model airplane and shoots it over my head and wrecks my hair and scares me to death. What do you do with a brother like that?

MAD

DEAR MAD: Lock your door and tell your brother to go fly a kite (outside)!

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Letter From Japan

EDITORS NOTE — Mrs. William H. Hasebroock of West Point tells of a visit with a Japanese Woman's Club in another letter to The Lincoln Star Written during her tour of the Far East.

Imperial Hotel, Tokyo, Japan—

Every morning when I awaken I have to pinch myself to really believe I am privileged to be on this trip. It is arousing within me a curiosity that is developing into a concern and a compassion for these people so far on the other side of our world. Today we visited with a club of Japanese women in Kamakura, a good-sized city about thirty miles from Tokyo, but, due to traffic, a two-hour bus trip.

In Kamakura, we were pleased to note the attention these farsighted community women leaders are sharing with their friends. Mrs. Toshiko Tanaka is president of the Family Health Club. It is their objective that each family member of the club-women, and eventually the entire community, will receive complete physical check-ups twice each year from the health bureau. They have been organized long enough to be excited with the first results — a smaller incidence of many ailments and illnesses which plague these Oriental people.

The group was entertained in the auditorium of a club house with a program of characteristic Japanese dances by four to twelve-year-old children. Already these girls are wearing the chalk-like make-up, never changing expression, although one with dimples had a hard time keeping them under control at times. True to hospitality, small cakes, sandwiches and punch were served from beautifully-appointed tables out of doors under tents. In their upstairs rooms, flower arrangements were shown and a demonstration of the impressive and elaborate tea ceremony was presented. All the time a quartette of three Koto and one flute (wooden) was providing background music. The soloist was blind but had been assisted in her education by this club.

The mayor and his wife were on hand to greet our group. His Honor's address had to be translated by a high school girl, but remembering many of my husband's comments to groups convening in our community of West Point, where he is serving his 13th year as mayor, I recognized the same spirit of appreciation for a visiting delegation.

NCO Wives

Members of the NCO Club at the Lincoln Air Force Base will meet for their monthly social evening at the NCO Club on Tuesday. The evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will include bunko and cards.

Oldest and Youngest

One of the fun events of the Twin Parents Club was the picnic held Sunday afternoon at Antelope Park. The club, organized last March, has 30 sets of parents as members, and there are 31 sets of twins, due to the fact that one family has two sets of twins.

In the picture we find the oldest twins at the picnic, Bonnie and Connie Shurter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shurter, entertaining the youngest pair of twins, Ronnie and Donnie Wall, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wall of Greenwood. We have the idea that the young man on the left is Donnie — but then again he could be Ronnie — Oh well —

Town Talk

—Called the roll this morning and were happy to hear former absentees answer present. It has been nearly three months since Dr. and Mrs. Harold Morgan took off for Europe—They returned home on Sunday evening and we learned that in addition to Dr. Morgan's medical meeting in Holland, the travelers did the Continent rather thoroughly, and also visited the Scandinavian countries where, in Copenhagen, they saw former Gov. Victor Anderson and Howard Agee of Omaha. As a matter of fact the Nebraskans were together at the Embassy where Val Peterson holds forth as Ambassador.

* * *

—Some people sail under the North Pole and other people fly over the Arctic Circle—We have in mind Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Pierson who are just home from Alaska where Dr. Pierson attended a convention of the Alaska State Dental Society. But while in the 49th state Dr. and Mrs. Pierson took a look around. The meeting was in Anchorage, and after it was over the travelers from Lincoln went to Nome, Fairbanks, visited the Kenai Peninsula and didn't miss the Portage Glacier.

And, of course, Dr. and Mrs. Pierson flew over the Arctic Circle whereupon they were presented with a certificate.

* * *

—Our Bassinet Club news this morning involves Bruce Thomsen Mapes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mapes—and Alpha Tau Omega legacy—who arrived at Lincoln General Hospital on Saturday, July 18. Mrs. Mapes is the former Margaret Thomsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Thomsen—and Alpha Chi Omega at Nebraska. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mapes. Two additional admirers of the new member of the family are his sisters, Cindy and Cheryl.

* * *

—Have news of brides-elect this morning, and we'll begin with the party for which Miss Judy Decker, whose marriage to Roger Khrounek takes place in August, and her mother, Mrs. Freeman Decker, were hostesses when they entertained in prenuptial courtesy to Miss Dorothy Beechner. The guest list included a group of former high school friends of the honoree.

Miss Beechner, whose marriage to John Richard Mapes will take place in late August, was presented with a vice shower.

* * *

—Incidentally, this is a busy week for Miss Decker whose party calendar leaves few idle ents.

Today Miss Decker will be complimented by Mrs. Joe Winterhalter and Mrs. Luther Gibson who have invited guests for luncheon at the Lincoln Country Club.

And this evening Miss ecker will again be an honoree when Mr. Khrounek's sister-in-law, Mrs. Elwyn Khrounke, entertains at a dessert supper and kitchen shower at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Peachman.

* * *

—Honoring Miss Decker on Wednesday evening will be Miss Jean Sell and Miss Jane Curfman of Rockport, Mo., who will be hostesses at the home of Miss Sell.

The Olsons Took the Long Way

A few weeks ago Dr. and Mrs. James C. Olson and their two daughters, Sara and Elizabeth, left to spend several months in Italy where Dr. Olson plans to devote his time to historical writing.

But it would seem that the Olson foursome took the long way'round — They stopped by Copenhagen where they were greeted by Ambassador and Mrs. Val Peterson.

In the picture, seated left to right, are Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Peterson and Sara Olson.

Standing — Dr. Olson, Ambassador Peterson (former Nebraska governor) and Elizabeth Olson.

Morning Ceremony

MRS. JOHN B. TOOLEY

At a morning ceremony solemnized on Saturday, July 11, Miss Joy Lynne Stiegelmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Stiegelmeier of Java, S.D., became the bride of John B. Tooley, son of Mrs. Frank J. Tooley of Columbus. The lines of the service were read by the Rev. Timothy Healy of Columbus and St. Anthony's Church in Selby, S.D.

Miss Beverly Stiegelmeier of Java, as her sister's maid of honor, Mrs. Delbert Bickel, Mobridge, S.D., the bridesmatron, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Jane Tooley, Columbus, sister of the bridegroom, wore alike frocks of crystalette in varying shades of blue.

Serving as best man was Dean Soulliere of Columbus, and the ushers were Joseph Tooley, brother of the bridegroom, and Larry Gerdes, Columbus; and Murlyn Bickel of Herreid, S.D.

The bride chose white Chantilly lace for her wedding gown. The elongated bodice was designed with a squared neckline bordered by natural scallops of the lace and sprinkled with sequins, and the scallop motif edged the brief sleeves, which were complemented by long mitts of the lace. The full skirt was caught into a harem hemline in the daytime length.

Mr. and Mrs. Tooley will reside in Lincoln where the bridegroom, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, is a senior at the University of Nebraska. Mrs. Tooley is a graduate of South Dakota State College, Brookings, S.D.

Candlelight Wedding

MRS. ALAN FORREST SPIELER

For the marriage of Miss Virginia Sayo Okubo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rokuro Okubo of Mundelein, Ill., to Alan Forrest Spieler, son of Dr. and Mrs. Forrest B. Spieler of Pequot Lakes, Minn., formerly of Lincoln, which took place Friday evening, June 12, white gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the altar of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church at Libertyville, Ill. The candlelight service was solemnized by the Rev. W. H. Lehmann.

Mrs. Geroge Dow of Humarock, Mass., was the matron of honor, and the maid of honor was Miss Joan Okubo. Miss Phyllis Okubo was the bridesmaid, and junior bridesmaid was Miss Amy Spieler. Attending the bride as flower girl was Miss Lorayne Ohashi.

Serving as best man was David Van Nostrand of St. Cloud, Minn., and the ushers were George Dow, Humarock, Mass., and Ellsworth Whitney, Fontana, Wis.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of white silk trimmed with imported lace. Lace fashioned the rounded yoke of the sculptured bodice of silk, and continued over the shoulders into long, fitted sleeves. The width of the circular skirt was emphasized by back panels of the lace.

SUBURBIA

EASTRIDGE

Taking a weekend trip to Moorhead, Ia., were Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Freeman and their two daughters, Kit and Ginny. The Freemans spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Freeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nielsen.

Mention of the Freemans reminds us that Kit Freeman and Trudy Nyquist returned recently from Camp Kiwanis at Milford, where they spent a week swimming and camping. Trudy is the daughter or Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn A. Nyquist.

The newest member of the Eastridge young set is Gregg Edward Kamas, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kamas of 1340 Eastridge. Young Gregg Edward arrived July 9th at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Melenson of St. Marys, Kan. Mrs. Kamas was the former JoAnn Melenson. Mr. and Mrs. Kamas have three other children, Patrice, 9, Jamie, 6, and Marcia, 1½.

More stork news in Eastridge tells us of the arrival of Karen Ruth Fibiger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fibiger of 6211 Sunrise, on July 10 at Bryan Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Fibiger was Barbara Stuart. Maternal grandparents are A. V. Stuart and Mrs. Ruth Stuart, both of Minneapolis, Minn., and the paternal grandparents are Barge Fibiger of Victoria, Canada, and Mrs. Elizabeth Fibiger of Minneapolis.

Residents in Eastridge are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. DeLair and their four sons, Douglas, 16, Stephen, 15, Stanley, 10, and Johnny, 4. The DeLair family moved into their new home at 512 Mulder Drive after previously residing at 1921 Prospect.

Celebrating her 13th birthday on July 6th was Miss Lynn Graham, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Donald E. Graham. Lynn entertained at a birthday slumber party at her home. Guests talking into the wee hours of the morning included JoAnn Brown, Kathy Spencer, Susan Cacek, Linda Campbell, Suzette McCord, and Dianna Zank.

Speaking of Lynn Graham reminds us that Lynn and Susan Cacek are now spending two weeks at Camp Catron in Nebraska City.

A trip back east recently was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. McCracken. They spent three weeks visiting New York City, Atlantic City, and other spots along the coast. While Mr. and Mrs. McCracken were gone, their three children, Alan, Bruce, and Sarah, visited in Kansas City, Mo., at the home of Mrs. McCracken's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Long.

Talk of the McCracken family reminds us that Mr. and Mrs. Dale J. McCracken returned Monday from a visit to Ft. Worth, Tex. They stayed at the home of Mrs. McCracken's brother-in-law and sister.

Taking an overnight trip to Omaha last week end were Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Pejsar, Dr. and Mrs. P. L. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Stehly, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Kenneth Cobb. The four couples composed a dinner-bridge club, and the week end in Omaha was an extra-curricular activity.

Bank Misses $260,000—Teller Is Held

Miami Beach — The FBI Monday arrested a handsome and cocky bank teller who said he ran up a $265,000 shortage betting the dogs and horses.

His superiors at the bank described the employe, Robert Davis, 26, as a man who "faced a promising career." What they did not know was that Davis doubled at night as a parimutuel ticket seller at a dog racing track.

Apparently he sold betting tickets on the one hand and used the bank's money to buy them on the other.

The FBI said Davis, loan teller at the bank, "would accept a note payment from a customer but would not record this payment on the same day received.

Delayed Posting

"He would hold these payments 3 or 4 days and use another customer's payment to pay off the first customer's note. He then would use a third customer's payment to pay off the second customer's payment and so on.

"The delay in posting these payments to the bank's records enabled Davis always to have a sum of money for his personal use. Davis stated that he lost this money at the dog and horse tracks."

Davis, a meticulous dresser with a swarthy complexion, was arrested at work. The bank had learned of the shortage several days before and traced it to him. But he cooly stayed at his job, helping investigators unravel the records.

84 ARRESTED IN 2ND CRACKDOWN BY PATROL

The Nebraska Safety Patrol arrested 84 motorists in its second crackdown in 2 weeks, Col. C. J. Sanders sand Monday.

Another 160 violation cards and 98 warning tickets were issued as troopers converged on areas for selective enforcement.

"I think we'll continue selective enforcement," Col. Sanders said. "The results are beinning to show. We plan on hitting more counties in the future."

'Cooperating'

Col. Sanders said the "Nebraska people are cooperating" in the crackdown.

The area breakdown of violations, arrests and warning tickets:

Lincoln — Sixteen troopers arrested 16, issued 44 violation cards and 26 warning tickets.

Omaha, Fremont — Twelve troopers arrested 14, issued 31 violation cards and 21 warning tickets. (Both radar and a patrol plane were used in this area.)

Norfolk, Columbus—Fifteen troopers arrested 23, issued 75 violation cards and 19 warning tickets. Four accidents were investigated by the patrol in this area and one stolen car recovered on a county road.

Grand Island — Eighteen troopers arrested 31, issued 15 violation cards and 32 warning tickets to motorists on county roads in Adams, Clay, Franklin and Webster counties.

Meirath To Head Crash Record Unit

The selection of Wayne A. Meirath as supervisor of the accident records bureau in the State Highway Department was confirmed Monday by Robert Meyer, chief of the Department's traffic engineering division.

Meirath

The 27-year old Meirath, who has been employed by the state in the central accounting office, replaces Robert A. Pease who resigned recently after being charged by Lincoln police with bootlegging and selling liquor on Sunday while working as a part-time cab driver.

Pease has pleaded innocent to the charges and is awaiting trial.

A native of Plymouth, Meirath attended Fairbury Junior College and has been a resident of Lincoln for the past 2½ years. Meyer said Meirath would receive the same salary ($365) as Pease after he serves a probationary period.

Neighbors Pitch In For Injured Farmer At Davey

Five neighbors of A. P. King, who lives near Davey, pitched in Monday to cultivate 60 acres of corn on the King farm.

King had injured a foot in the mishap involving a power mower.

Those assisting in the cultivation were Carl A. Johnson, Allen Johnson, Richard Creiner, Lee Bingham and Eugene Creiner.

27TH ST. TO SHUT TUESDAY

South 27th between Sheridan and South Streets will be closed to traffic beginning at 8 a.m. Tuesday. for approximately a week.

During this time the street will be resurfaced, according to the Lincoln Police Dept.

What Was It?

London (AP) — Radio Moscow reports workmen in Kiev found the skeleton of a huge prehistoric animal while digging up one of the main streets of the city. The broadcast said it was natural to assume that Stone Age men lived in the region.

Farmers Told They May Lose Legislature Control

Nebraska's rural residents had better get their educational house in order before they lose control of the state legislature according to the dean of the college of education at the University of North Dakota.

Dr. M. L. Cushman in a speech Monday at the University of Nebraska's clinic on "Patterns of Rural Education," said that primary accomplishments necessary to put the "house in order" were reorganization of school districts, transportation facilities for rural pupils and more complete rural school facilities.

The North Dakota educator said to obtain these goals increased state aid to education is necessary and that rural residents should make a greater effort toward obtaining it before urban representation in the state legislature increases.

Always A Need

Dr. Cushman said there will always be a need for good rural education. "Just because the number of one-room school houses is declining is no reason to assume that rural education is on its way out," he pointed out. "What is occurring now is a change instead of a displacement."

Some of the changes he enumerated were:

—Lessening of rural isolation.

—Increases in part time farming.

—Decreases in farm population.

—Commercialization of agriculture.

Next to increased state aid, he said, school district reorganization was most important. He showed between 1932 and 1953 that 47 other states had decreased the number of districts and said that Nebraska is now at the bottom with more districts than any other state.

He said this factor was a prime reason for the state's difficulty in improving rural education.

Pensions Backed For War Heroes

Washington (AP) — Each holder of the Medal of Honor would receive a $100-a-month pension for life under a bill passed unanimously Monday by the House and sent to the Senate.

The bill would liberalize present law which grants a $10 monthly pension to Medal of Honor winners who have been honorably discharged and who have reached the age of 65.

In addition to eliminating the age and discharge requirement, the bill would grant the pension to medal winners whether or not they still are on active duty.

The committee said approximately 314 Medal of Honor winners were living as of last February.

DON'T LET THIS GO BY

Don't pass up this FREE offer: A cute miniature clothes line kit in plastic bag. It really works and is just right for vacation travel or playtime. Plastic line with brightly colored spring action clothes pins will take care of dolly's wash or your own light vacation needs. But, of course, it will never take the place of your modern gas clothes dryer. Rain or shine it's one of Mom's most dependable, efficient friends. Write now to Constance Flame, Northern Natural Gas Company, 2223 Dodge St., Omaha 1, Nebr. And tell me in what newspaper you read this offer. One per request while supply lasts. It's not at all necessary, but if you have a favorite household hint or recipe handy I would be thrilled to receive it.

HAWAIIAN ISLAND DESSERT

Even if you don't have a palm tree in your back yard, you can salute our newest state with this tasty trio: Slice golden-ripe bananas into chunks of canned pineapple. Sprinkle generously with flaked coconut. Chill. Serve with vanilla wafers. (Ask your teen-age son to strum his guitar for atmosphere!)

POSTURE TEST

It seems . . . nothing robs good looks more than poor posture! Stand in front of a full-length mirror. Hold your tummy in; stand up tall. Now relax to a slump. Makes a big difference in the way you look and the way your clothes fit, doesn't it? Better posture may feel uncomfortable at first, but you'll soon find yourself feeling more graceful and less tired. (Best of all, you'll feel younger!)

DON'T ROCK THIS CRADLE

"Cradles," "Dollies" and "Irish Buggies" aren't for kiddies! To Northern Natural Gas Company pipeliners, an "Irish Buggy" is a wheelbarrow; "Dollies" hold pipes in place during welding; a "Cradle" lowers the lines into trenches. Northern's pipeliners have a special "slanguage" — and a special job to do! They lay the pipelines that carry natural gas to your town. Then your local gas company pipes it into your home — and you enjoy better living!

SUGAR 'N' SPICE

Your kitchen will be filled with memory-stirring aroma when you pop these Kaffeeklatsch delights into your gas oven! Recipe, compliments Mrs. Earl Mast, Minneapolis, Minn.: Sift 2 cups flour, 3 tsp. baking powder, ½ tsp. salt together. Cut in ⅓ cup shortening. Add ¾ cup of milk. Mix with hands. 3,770 Fans See Action As Lincoln Trims Soos

Score In 10th Gains 8-7 Win

By Don Bryant

Lincoln's Chiefs finally got over their stage fright in front of large audiences Monday night at Sherman Field, but it took 10 innings to turn the trick.

With a Gold's Night gathering of 3,770 waiting patiently, the Chiefs nipped Sioux City, 8-7, in the 10th inning.

It was little Don Bacon, the fancy fielding shortstop, who got Lincoln in business after Sioux City tied it up 7-7 in the 9th.

He opened the home 10th with a booming triple to right centerfield. And after Jack Bristol—the 5th Sioux City pitcher of the night—gave Mike Hershberger an intentional walk, Don Gordon chopped a bouncer past the mound.

Dick Howser fielded the ball, but his throw to the plate was too late to nab Bacon who slid in with the winning tally.

The same clubs renew hostilities at Sherman Field tonight at 8 p.m. Joel Horlen (1-2) will pitch for the Chiefs against Soo Bud Blemker.

Monday's game featured just about everything in the book.

Briefly, there were 19 walks—11 by Soo pitchers, 8 by 3 Chief hurlers—4 wild pitches, 3 passed balls, 2 hit batsmen, 3 stolen bases, 3 sacrifice flies, a double play, a home run, a pair of Lincoln rallies, one come-from-behind Sioux City effort, and the first appearance of Umpire Max Stone.

Lincoln had the king-sized chore, but the Chiefs came through. Trailing 5-1 in the 6th, Ira Hutchinson's battlers piled up 5 runs to go ahead as 4 Soo chuckers were pressed into service.

Bacon's single to center drove in 2 runs in the frame that saw 11 batters report to the plate. Aiding the Lincoln cause were 5 walks, a pair of singles, and a hit batter.

Catcher Al Schrader made it 7-5 in the 7th by ripping a solo homer over the left-field wall and Lincoln reliever Phil Groth —who spelled Bryant Wasdell in the 4th—was in line for a victory.

But in the 9th the Soos got to No. 3 hurler Ron Bloodworth for a pair of unearned tallies to tie it up. After one Soo run scored via an error, Horace Garner—recently released by Cedar Rapids—singled to plate the tying run.

Bloodworth dispatched the Soos with ease in the top of the 10th and the Bacon-Gordon duo sewed it up.

Smoke Signals . . . . . Umpire Stone got a mixed—but loud—greeting when he appeared for plate duty. He helped stir up the huge turnout in the 7th and 8th innings by issuing stern warnings to the Sioux City bench . . . Max also took time out from his pitch-calling chores to mend Chief catcher Schrader's mitt in the first inning . . . . Soo shortstop Alex George is the son of Big 8 official by the same name.

Honnor, Goodsell Carry State's Banner In NSL

By Paul LeBar

A pair of 1959 high school graduates from Lincoln and Ord respectively are carrying the state's banner in the homespun Nebraska State Rookie League this summer.

The pair, oddly enough, both play first base. They are Lincoln's Bill Honnor, with the Hastings Giants, and Ord's Dick Goodsell, with the Kearney Yankees.

Both boys are rangy—Honnor is 6-2 and Goodsell 6-4—but Goodsell carries more heft on his 195-pound frame.

Former Link, Optimist

Honnor, now 18, prepped at Lincoln High School under the guidance of Coach Buford Grosscup and with the Lincoln Optimists Junior Legion baseball team where last year he hit .381.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Honnor of 2949 Q Street in the Capital City, Bill confesses that, "Right now it's my hitting I have to work at." At the time of the interview the Lincoln native was batting near the .200 mark.

Hastings Manager Leo Schrall, also baseball coach at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill. during the school year, says Honnor's best assets for the professional game include good power and a good arm.

"He needs to work on fielding and hitting," Schrall adds. "He has average speed."

Infield His Spot

Manager Schrall, after looking over his prospect for a 3rd of the State League season, thinks the infield is definitely the spot for the rangy 165-pounder. He considers Honnor a good glove man.

"He has a real good attitude," Schrall offers. "He listens well and he's trying. You can't ask any more than that."

Honnor, signed by Giant scout Joe Grace early in June, plans to enter the University of Nebraska in his hometown and major in physical education this fall.

His biggest thrill so far this season has been a pinch hit single with the bases loaded that drove across the winning run against North Platte.

Has Physical Assets

Kearney Manager Jim Gleason believes Goodsell, a $4,000 bonus choice of the Yankees, has all the physical assets necessary to succeed.

The 3-year whiz with the Ord American Legion Juniors was assigned immediately to work at first base despite having been equally effective on the mound as a Legion Junior.

Goodsell has found the transition from Ord to Organized Baseball a difficult one to make. Recently he was hitting only two-for-13.

A thumb injury incurred in an early game has slowed his progress, and Dick feels, "I've got to play more baseball," to get in the swing of it.

'Time And Practice'

Manager Gleason describes the 17-year-old as, "in the awkward stage right now. Iis just gonna' take time and practice to work him beyond it."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Goodsell, who farm north of Burwell, Dick was recently married to his high school sweetheart Kay Alcott.

Cards Blank Cubs To Tie For 5th Spot

St. Louis (AP) — Rookie Ernie Broglio pitched the St. Louis Cardinals into a 5th-place tie with the Chicago Cubs here Monday night, blanking the Bruins 2-0 on 9 scattered hits.

Both runs off Glen Hobbie were unearned as a result of an error by Chicago second baseman Tony Taylor.

The Cardinals used just 9 players for the first time this season.

Broglio, 23-year-old right-hander whose record is now 4-6, started the decisive 7th inning by grounding to Taylor, who let the ball roll between his legs.

Steen Blasts Curtis Again

Terms Senator's Harlan County Statement 'Lot Of Malarkey'

State Game Commission director Mel Steen blasted Sen. Carl Curtis again Monday on Curtis' bill to return some of the public land in the Harlan County dam area to private ownership.

Steen charged that a statement by Curtis on the reservoir was "a lot of malarkey."

"The good senator would have us believe that the corps of engineers buy land only to discover they don't need it," Steen said. "The engineers are a highly efficient organization; they know what they are doing at all times.

"The truth is that the land is question lies above the irrigation-pool level but below the flood-pool level. The engineers must either buy this land or buy flowage rights thereon. Their experience has been that flowage easements are often expensive, so much so that it is better business and in the public interest to buy the land.

"At Harlan they bought the land. Why sell it now and buy back only flowage rights"? Steen said.

The Game Commission and engineers are negotiating for the commission to take over game and recreational management at Harlan.

"Returning this land to private ownership will not increase its agricultural use," Steen said. "This land is being rented now to adjoining farmers for cash rent. Seventy-five per cent of this cash rent is returned to local governmental units in lieu of taxes. To date this return frequently exceeded the taxes previously collected from the same acreage," he said.

Steen said private ownership will greatly handicap desirable wildlife management activities.

"It will eliminate the proposed goose-management project, and largely eliminate dry-land sports, especially upland hunting," he said.

Steen said it also could eliminate water sports.

This year, Steen said, an individual who holds only a lease from the government, has been keeping the public out of Coyote Canyon, one of the best fishing bays on the lake.

"What would happen to public recreation if he owned the land?" Steen said.

Lincoln Gals Cleaned Up

It may not be conclusive, but it's hard to belittle its significance . . . Lincoln's delegation to the Nebraska Women's Golf Tournament in Omaha last week cleaned house in matches against the host metropolitans . . . The final tally in that competition, if you're listening, was 23 for Lincoln and 18 for Omaha. Has the sun ever shone brighter on the Capital City?

Out of the 4 championships and one consolation crown lugged back from the expedition, one can only surmise that hard work and a lot of patience with the ladies' games have paid off with the richest of dividends.

The happiest family? The D. E. Murray clan, with mother Liz annexing the senior title and daughter Sandy picking up the laurels in the junior division.

The happiest pro? Hillcrest Country Club's Bunny Richards, the friendly guy whose stable at HCC brought back the glory to Lincoln.

And it's hard to see how any state champion could be more gracious than our Dorothy Schwartzkopf.

Pros Could Offer Retreat For Alex

A hunch says that Alex Olmedo, the somewhat-weathered on-again off-again hero of the United States Davis Cup team, will be more receptive to promoter Jack Kramer's professional contract overtures before the snow flies.

Alex, you'll remember, turned a deaf ear toward Kramer before the action at Wimbledon. It looked as though the Golden Boy could bask forever in the amateur sun after breezing to a triumph in merry old England.

Nothing has been merry for Alex, however, since he made a hurried and fruitless trip back to Chicago for the National Clay Courts tournament last week. From what's happened to the young performer in the amateur ranks, one might guess the professional ranks could be a retreat.

There, at least, he could lose once in a while and still retain an air of respectability.

Using Psychology On The Baseball Fan?

This subject of a 3rd major league will probably remain the hot topic in baseball for many months to come. The question doesn't seem to be so much of its feasibility as it does of whether present major league club owners are yet willing to accept it.

Sooner or later, it seems agreed, the expansion will come. Not too many moons ago there was furor in the ranks when talk arose of planting teams in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

On the surface a 3rd loop might seem to dilute the caliber of major league baseball. It's also certain that organized baseball doesn't want to permit new franchises without assurance that the public is ready.

Right now popular sentiment is on the side of the Shea group, whose preliminary moves have been fought by both leagues.

Still, it's difficult to imagine any better psychological maneuver that O.B. could use.

American people still go for the slogan: "They said it couldn't be done."

Toss it at 'em once and see how they eat it up.

Dodgers Cut 'Frisco's NL Lead To 1½

San Francisco (AP) — Second baseman Charlie Neal hit Johnny Antonelli's first pitch in the 9th inning for a 365-foot homer into the left field pavilion Monday to give the Los Angeles Dodgers a 3-2 victory over San Francisco. The loss cut the Giants' National League lead to 1½ games.

Antonelli, pitching brilliantly after a first inning homer by Gil Hodges got the Dodgers away to a 2-0 lead, had retired 21 batters in order before Neal's wind-blown lift, his 12th homerun of the season.

A record-smashing Monday crowd of 22,777, welcoming the Giants home from an 11-6 road trip for a 19-game home stand, saw Don Drysdale settle down after a rough second inning and hurl his 12th victory of the season against 6 losses.

The side-arming fastballer struck out 7 Giants. He boosted his total as the league's current strikeout king to 154, the highest of his career.

MOSCOW IGNORES SEPARATE SCORING; CLAIMS RUSS WIN

London (AP)— Moscow radio Monday ignored the separate meet system of scoring used in the United States-Russia men's and women's track meets and hailed the result as a "major and deserved victory" for the Soviet Union.

The men's and women's events were scored separately in Philadelphia, not combined as the Russians chose to do last year over American protests.

The American men won 127-108 and the Russian women won 67-40. The combined scores were 175 for Russia and 167 for the U.S.

The situation was similar to that in Moscow last year when the Russians claimed a 172-170 victory on a 63-44 margin for their women and a 126-109 triumph for the U.S. men.

Moscow radio said the result was "a great success for Soviet light athletes and their trainers and our home sports as a whole."

Moscow radio referred to the Philadelphia meet as "the meeting of the giants" and added: "The Americans, who lost in Moscow last year, naturally went all out to win the return match at home."

The commentator continued: "It should be pointed out that the choice of a stadium and venue of the contest aroused great doubt among light athletics enthusiasts.

"Franklin Stadium is the slowest in the United States. Furthermore it is very hot in Philadelphia at this time of the year. The heat greatly hindered performances."

Hillcrest Pro Hopes For Successful Meet

"I think the golf course is in good shape, and with good weather we should have a real fine week."

Those were the words from Hillcrest Country Club pro Bunny Richards Monday on the eve of the 39th annual Lincoln City Tournament for men.

A total of 157 hopefuls had entered the competition for qualifying spots today. The list could swell as high as 175 before tee-off time this morning.

Richards said he expected the 5-day match play meet to be a slam-bang affair with no fewer thn 8 golfers capable of taking the title.

Roy Wythers Jr. of the host club is the defending champion.

Most of the entries shot qualifying rounds at the rolling HCC spread Monday, with Dr. Tom Dworak's one under par 71 the best reported round.

Earl Cawthorne leveled with par at 72. Seventy-fives were reported for Valley Voyles, Matt Taber, Emil Frank and Lee Chapin.

The top 32 medalists today will be paired in the championship flight strarting Wednesday. Richards said regular summer rules would be used for the championship flight and winter rules for the lower divisions.

Deadlock In 'Fame Game

Cooperstown, N.Y. (AP)—Five home runs sailed out of Doubleday Field Monday as the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Kansas City Athletics battled to a 5-5 standoff in the annual Hall of Fame game. The exhibition was called in the 6th inning because of rain.

Bill Mazeroski hit two home runs for the Pirates and Bill Virdon socked one. All of them came against Howard Reed, a rookie right hander. Joe DeMaestri and Harry Chiti homered for the Athletics. A crowd of 8,714 attended the exhibition, which climaxed the induction of Zack Wheat into the Hall of Fame.

Brundage Promises Support To Chinese

Washington (AP) — The State Department Monday welcomed a statement attributed to Avery Brundage that he will support the recognition of the "Olympic Committee of the Republic of China."

Department press officer Joseph Reap said "we hope that the matter will soon be resolved along the lines of Mr. Brundage's recommendations." Brundage is president of the International Olympic Committee.

A statement issued in Philadelphia by Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson quoted Brundage as saying about the IOC's rejection of the Chinese Nationalist Olympic Committee under that name:

"The wording of the resolution adopted at the meeting of the International Olympic Committee May 28 was unfortunate. It certainly did not express the intent of the Munich meeting."

"The IOC action was merely a move to identify properly the athletes of Taiwan. The Formosa Chinese have now applied under the name of their country, the Olympic Committee of the Republic of China.

"I will recommend and support the recognition of this committee under that name."

The committee's original action aroused a furor in the United States and Taiwan. There were widely circulated reports that Nationalist China had been ousted from the Olympics as a result of the action.

The IOC invited Nationalist China to re-apply for membership under another name on the grounds that the Chinese Nationalist committee did not serve as the governing body for sports on the mainland of China.

Last June the Chinese Nationalist Olympic Committee by a unanimous vote changed its name to the Olympic Committee of the Republic of China. But the IOC rejected the new name.

2nd Course Wanted By Golf Board

Three recommendations regarding public golf courses in Lincoln have been made by the Pioneers Golf Board to the City Council through park superintendent Jim Ager's budget requests.

1. To blacktop the drive and parking area at Pioneers at a cost of around $9,000.

2. Funds be used to secure enough land for another regulation 18-hole grass greens golf course, with the idea that 9 holes be developed immediately, and the other 9 holes to be developed after the completion of the first 9 holes.

3. Rebuild all greens at Pioneers, 3 each year, starting with Nos. 1, 7 and 12.

Ager's recommendation to the Council was that blacktopping of the drive and parking area would be a worthwhile project, if funds were available, especially in view of the fact that Van Dorn St. has been blacktopped to the golf course entrance.

There has been considerable study by the City Council on the crowded public golf facilities in Lincoln. Pioneers is the only public course.

Several suggestions have been made, among them possibility of a second 18-hole grass greens course east of the present course, use of a 9-hole par 3 course, or the possibility of obtaining land in the eastern half of the city for an entirely new layout.

The recommendations on the golf situation will not be considered by the Council until later in the week.

JR. RING TITLE WON BY GOMES

Providence, R.I. (AP) — Durable Harold Gomes survived 4 knockdowns to punch out a unanimous 15 round decision over Paul Jorgenson and win the vacated world junior lightweight championship Monday night.

Gomes weighed 127½, Jorgenson 129½.

Gomes built a big lead early as he befuddled the 25-year-old part time businessman by alternating left and right hand leads. The local boy had whipped Jorgenson last March in a televised bout by employing right hand leads. This time he kept Paul off balance.

It was in the 11th that Jorgenson, who had shown fight camp observers nothing of a right hand during his training period, took the wraps off his secret weapon.

Jorgenson did everything but take into account Gomes' remarkable courage and staying power.

The first junior lightweight titlist was Johnny Dundee who beat George (K.O.) Chaney on the 5th round foul in 1921. There had been no activity in the division since 1949 until the National Boxing Assn. revived the 130 pound class last month and set up this bout.

In the same mailing the Commission sent all permit vendors the 1959-60 trapping permits, which cost $2.50.

Woodling Credited For Birds' Success

Baltimore (AP)—The success of the Baltimore Orioles this year can be credited largely to the play of Gene Woodling.

It isn't only Woodling's .333 batting average, second best in the American League, that has helped to keep the Orioles in the first division most of the season, but his hustle as well.

It was never more obvious than Sunday, when Gene scored from first base on a bloop single to short right field for the decisive run in a 2-1 victory over Detroit.

Pilot Gives Praise

"Woodling is one of the best hustling players in baseball," commented Manager Paul Richards. "I don't ever remember Gene taking a loafing step on the field."

At 36, Woodling is intensely proud of his running ability.

"When you sign that old contract in the springtime," he said, "there's only one thing it demands of you.

"It can't say you've got to hit .400, and it can't say you're gonna catch every ball.

"It does demand that you should run all the time, though."

Not First Time

Commenting on the Sunday game, Woodling said, "When I saw Gus (Triandos) hit that fly, I knew there were two outs and I told myself, 'Gene old boy, run all the way.'" He added, "That's not the first time I've scored from first base on a single."

Woodling hits many balls on the ground, and it is significant that he has hit into only one double play this year. Of the Orioles, only Al Pilarcik—one of the fastest men in the league—can match that record. Also, Pilarcik has batted fewer than half as many times as Woodling.

After 14 years in the majors, Woodling believes offseason work on his farm near Medina, O. has helped keep his legs in shape. "When your old dogs are barking," he remarked, "you're just no good."

Woodling estimated he walked 1,000 miles last winter tending 40 head of cattle and doing other farm chores.

"At my age, working that farm didn't hurt me a bit," he said. "Each year you gotta go a little harder to stay in shape."

NO RULE TO COVER IT, BUT BUBBLE DISDAINED

Salina, Kan. (AP) — Like many baseball pitchers, Rob Neilson likes to take his chaw to the mound.

Unlike most hurlers, Rob chews bubble gum.

Result is Salina's Cookie League for boys 13 to 15 has a bubble of a controversy going.

Rob, pitching for the Elks, blew a bubble when he was about to pitch. The Lions manager, Elmer Oelschlager, said that was distracting to his batters.

The umpire warned he would call a balk if the pitcher did it again. A couple of pitches later, out came another bubble. The umpire called the balk and a run trotted in from 3rd.

Bob Neilson, Elks manager and father of Rob, charged onto the field, argued vigorously and finally filed a protest, asking for a replay of the game which was by the Lions 4-0.

The arbitration board of league managers turned down the protest petition.

Neilson argued that the rule book "does not list blowing bubbles while pitching a balk," and that the balk call unnerved his team.

John Wiedmer, boys baseball commissioner, said the umpire used a rule which give the arbiter "power to make a decision on any point not specifically covered by the rules."

The towering 17-year-old center smashed all sorts of scoring records in his 4 years at Ridgway High School here.

His father Philip said his son had offers from more than 120 schools and universities.

The boy was not available for comment, but his father said he picked Kansas State because he liked its agricultural school.

Mrs. Moore's Condition May Delay Fight Again

San Diego, Calif., (AP) — Archie Moore has interrupted training for his July 29 light-heavy title defense to fly from Montreal to the side of his ailing wife in San Diego.

Jack Murphy, sports editor of the San Diego Union, said Moore decided to fly here after a telephone conference with Mrs. Moore's physician.

Mrs. Moore underwent surgery for a mastoid infection Monday night.

The status of Moore's title fight with Yvon Durelle at Montreal was undecided. Murphy said Moore told him in a telephone interview from Montreal that he would seek a postponement but his manager, Jack (Doc) Kearns, told Murphy a decision would be delayed until Moore telephones him from San Diego.

Murphy said Kearns told him that Moore was extremely upset when he left Montreal.

The title fight originally was scheduled for July 15, but was postponed two weeks when Moore suffered a foot injury while in training.

Murphy said Moore told him:

"This is the worst thing that could happen. This is terrible. I've got to do right by my wife. It's not a tough decision for me. I must be at my wife's side.

"They'll have to set the fight back. There's no alternative but another postponement."

"I've been talking to Archie for the past five days," Dr. Kenneth Cales told Murphy, "and telling him to sit tight. But there has been a new turn of events in the last 24 hours.

"Now I'm advising Archie to come home immediately. I can't help what it does to the sports world. Her life is at stake. I know I would want to be with my wife if her condition was that critical."

NU Football Team Loses Monte Kiffin

Monte Kiffin, standout lineman on the Nebraska freshman team last fall, will be unable to see any action this fll.

Coach Bill Jennings, who returned Monday from Germany, reported Kiffin has undergone surgery on his back at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., and will be lost for the 1959 season.

Jennings was one of the instructors at an Air Force grid clinic in Germany. Former NU star Herman Rohrig, now a pro football official, also took part in the clinics.

During their trip the Husker duo visited with U.S. ambassador to Denmark, Val Peterson, former Nebraska governor.

The Husker coach said his staff will start staff meetings Aug. 1 to prepare for the 1959 season. Practice opens Aug. 31.

Net Crowns To Bartzen, Sally Moore

Chicago (AP)—Bernard (Tut) Bartzen, 31-year-old southpaw from Dallas, Monday retained his national clay court tennis crown by blasting out Whitney Reed, Alameda, Calif., 6-0, 8-6, 7-5.

The victory was the 3rd in this tournament for the No. 3 seeded Bartzen.

He also won in 1954.

Fourth seeded Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., 19-year-old sophomore at Occidental College, took the women's title by defeating Sandra Reynolds, 19-year-old South African beauty, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3.

The 26-year-old Reed, recently crowned NCAA champ from San Jose State, lost the first 9 games to the nimble Bartzen, including the 6-0 whitewash in the first set.

In the women's showdown, the outclassed Miss Reynolds displayed a nice bit of sportsmanship in the deciding set.

With the match square, each with a set and each with a game in the 3rd set, Miss Moore, leading 40-love, barely cleared the net with a soft shot.

Rushing to the net, Miss Reynolds returned the shot and the line judge called the point for her.

That would have given Miss Reynolds a point to pull out the game. But the blond South African lassie turned to the match referee, explaining she had touched the net with her racket.

This gesture automatically cost her the point, and the game, as Miss Moore went on to run out the set and take the match.

Oshkosh Flier Praised By Japanese Official

Capt. Riley, Killed In Plane Crash, Taught Jet Flying To Gen. Genda

Tokyo (AP)—Japan's newly appointed chief of air staff, Lt. Gen. Minoru Genda, a World War II Naval flier, was quoted Tuesday as saying he will never forget his American jet instructor who died last March while making a last effort to avoid crashing into a Japanese home.

"Every time I hear a jet fly over me, I cannot help recall an American we all respected so much," Gen. Genda said in an article published by the newspaper Homiuri.

The American was Capt. Joe J. Riley, 34, of Oshkosh, Neb. He was killed when his T33 trainer jet plane crashed March 30 near Johnson Air Base, 25 miles northwest of Tokyo. Also killed in the crash was Maj. Jack T. Chandler, 35, of Huntsville, Tex., who was his student.

Riley came here in April, 1956, to train Japanese pilots. The day after arrival at Tsuiki Air Base in Kyushu he was introduced to an elderly Japanese "student," Yomiuri said.

"My name is Minoru Genda," the trainee introduced himself.

"Oh, you are!" Riley exclaimed. "I've heard about you back home—as one of the greatest pilots ever produced by the former Japanese Navy."

Genda, now 54, masterminded the Pearl Harbor air operation in 1941 and that of Midway in 1942. He was appointed July 16 to head Japan's fledgling Air Force, replacing Lt. Gen. Sadamu Sanagi, who retired.

Genda recalled his instructor as being a man who did not smoke or drink. The article said Riley's wife, the former Loyce E. Akers of Fort Worth, Tex., often told friends, "My husband has two wives. One is me and the other is the jet."

Capt. Riley, the son of a one-time car racer, "liked his students. As a matter of fact he was seen spending more time with the Japanese than with his American friends," the article said.

"Whenever a Japanese pilot was killed (in a crash) Capt. Riley never failed to visit the home of the deceased and spend the night in wake with the family."

In October 1958 Capt. Riley was ordered home. But he went up to 5th air force headquarters near Tokyo and "tenaciously fought" for the extension of his stay here, the paper said.

The article described Riley's last flight as follows:

"After 40 minutes of training . . . suddenly a gust of wind hit the plane from the side, depriving it of the needed speed to keep it in the air.

Skimmed Rooftop

"Below a tiny Japanese house loomed large. The next moment he was pulling the control lever to the side with all his might. This made the plane lose the buoyancy further and before he knew it, he crashed into the river bed of Irumagawa after skimming the roof of the house he saw below.

"He saved a Japanese house from destruction—this was the last tribute he gave to the Japanese he so much loved."

His Japanese pilot students, numbering about 50 and stationed throughout the country, attended his funeral at the Johnson Air Base Chapel, Yomiuri said.

"There were more Japanese than Americans attending," the paper added.

Mead, Neb. —Omaha Action pacifist Arthur Harvey, 27, of Sheffield, Mass., waited all day Monday for a truck at the gate of the Nebraska Ordnance Plant so he could block its path. None showed up.

Omaha Action has been protesting construction of an Atlas missile base at the plant.

Saunders County officials were on duty prepared to arrest Harvey on a charge of obstructing a public road if he attempted to block a truck.

Harvey said he would try again Tuesday to block the road.

Omaha Action has announced that Tuesday will be the last day of protest at the site.

Will Violate Order

In Omaha, U. S. Marshal William Raab said he received a letter from Wilmer J. Young, a member of the pacifist group, in which Young said he planned to violate a court order and go to the Mead installation Tuesday.

Young was placed on parole after a previous arrest for trying to enter the grounds and U. S. District Judge Richard Robinson ordered him to stay away.

Raab said Young's letter declared "I have concluded that I cannot" do as ordered.

Young then wrote that he planned to be at the missile site Tuesday morning.

"And so will I," said Raab.

Henderson Store Entered, Robbed

Henderson, Neb. (AP) —York County authorities are looking for thieves who broke into the Janzen Hardware Store at Henderson.

It was the second break-in at the establishment in 42 years.

The burglars broke a rear window and made off with about $100 worth of merchandise.

'19 Debate Team At Kearney Will Honor Dr. Moyer

Muncie, Ind. (AP) — Forty years ago, Dr. Ralph Moyer, dean emeritus of Ball State Teachers College, organized and coached a debating team at Nebraska State Teachers College at Kearney.

Six members of the team will come to Muncie Thursday for an open house honoring the veteran educator.

They include I. D. Weeks, president of the University of South Dakota; T. C. Swindell, lawyer of Tulsa, Okla.; Edith McBride Cameron, head of the extension department of the University of Florida; Bernice Mims, retired instructor at the University of Florida; Ruth Rundle Weaver, lawyer at Akron, Ohio, and Arnold Tropier, librarian at the University of Illinois.

Serious Check Of State's Tax System Urged

Holdrege, Neb. (AP)—Nebraskans should no longer delay making a serious appraisal of the state tax system, State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington has told Holdrege Rotarians.

He added there has been no really substantial change in the tax law. Herrington also said he agreed that the property tax carries too much of load.

If a tax on grain is a good idea and fair, he suggested, it should be extended to other things.

Herrington said that the new law by which the state collected around $400,000 from the Ak-Sar-Ben races in Omaha alone proves the best way to beat the horses is to tax them.

4-H Festival Set

Battle Creek, Neb. — The Madison Count 4-H annual Share-The-Fun Festival will be held at the Battle Creek High School auditorium July 25 at 8 p.m.

Big Potential Soybean Market Seen In Europe By Harrison

Washington (AP) — Soybeans appear to have a great potential market in European countries, former Nebraska Rep. Robert D. Harrison said Monday.

Harrison, now adviser to the Commodity Credit Corporation's Board of Directors, recently returned from a 5-week trip through Spain, France, England, Holland, Italy and Switzerland.

"Soybeans appear to have the greatest potential," Harrison said, "and would be a medium we can depend upon."

Harrison said market development programs are arousing interest in American farm products abroad. He said this country has many competitors in such programs, including Russia.

He also said the standard of living all over Italy has been increased and called this encouraging from a trade development standpoint "because they will be bigger purchasers of food products."

McCook Police Chief Raburn Is Dead At 60

McCook, Neb. (AP) — McCook's police chief, Homer Raburn, died after a lengthy illness. Mr. Raburn, 60, had been hospitalized two months.

Mr. Raburn was a native of Georgia and was raised in Mississippi. He moved to the McCook area in 1930, farmed a year and then became night marshal at Lebanon.

He was named a Red Willow County deputy sheriff in 1934 and joined the McCook Police Department the following year.

Survivors include his widow a daughter, a son, 6 brothers, a sister and 3 grandchildren.

City Manager George Pyle will recommend a successor to the City Council. Glenn Soss has been acting chief.

Trading On Stocks Slowest Of Month

New York (AP) — Steels and motors led a broad retreat in stock market prices Monday.

Little selling pressure, though, stirred behind the downswing. Trading ran at the slowest rate in more than a month.

Most electronics, aircrafts, tobaccos, drugs and utilities joined the decline. A smattering of plus signs showed up among the generally lower metals, oils and chemicals.

Turnover, which moved at a relaxed pace through most of the session, totaled 2,500,000 shares against 2,510,000 on Friday. The day's volume was the smallest since 2,260,000 shares changed hands on June 19.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks sagged $1.10 to $229.30 with industrials down $1.70, rails down $1.10 and utilities down 10 cents.

The Dow Jones industrial average slipped 2.59 to 654.54.

Of 1,200 issues traded, 613 fell and 370 advanced. New 1959 highs were hit by 43 stocks and new lows by 20.

American Stock Exchange prices were mixed on a volume of 1,140,000 shares against 1,400,000 Friday.

Corporate bonds charted an irregular course Monday in moderate active trading. Long-term U.S. government securities were quiet and mostly firm. Price swings in the corporate sector followed wide arcs. Rails, utilities and industrials each turned up a mixture of gainers and losers.

Bond sales of the New York Stock Exchange increased to $5,250,000 par value from Friday's $4,320,000.

AP COMMODITY INDEX

New York (AP) The Associated Press weighted wholesale price index of 35 commodities declined to 169.87.

Previous day 170.12, week ago 170.71, month ago 172.98, year ago 171.62.

Rich Doctor Accused In Death Of Young Wife

West Covina, Calif. (AP)—A wealthy doctor was charged with murder Monday in the slaying of his pretty wife. He had left her for a cocktail waitress who once labeled him an "old Casanova."

Dr. Bernard Raymond Finch, 43, was returned from Las Vegas, Nev., where police found him in a $150 a month apartment near the Desert Inn golf course. He denied any part in the slaying.

Carol Pappas Tregoff, 22-year-old waitress in a strip hotel, told police that Dr. Finch had rented the apartment for her when she fled "to get out of the triangle."

Miss Tregoff, once a receptionist in the doctor's medical center, was once called an office wife by Barbara Jean Finch, 33, whose beaten and shot body was found near the driveway of the fashionable Finch home early Sunday morning.

Divorced Last January

James J. Pappas, 25-year-old muscle man and mason, told police that Mrs. Finch had suspected her husband and Miss Tregoff of an affair almost a year before the shooting. Miss Tregoff got an interlocutory divorce decree from Pappas last January.

Pappas said he believed the affair was one-sided.

"Carol spoke scathingly of Dr. Finch and once when I insisted that she stop going with him she said: 'There's nothing between us. He's just a bald-headed old man.'

"'An old Casanova,' that's what she called him."

Finch insisted he had been in Las Vegas since Friday. He would not talk to newsmen.

But Miss Tregoff told police she drove him to West Covina Saturday night so he could talk to his wife about a divorce. And a maid in the Finch home says the doctor was there Saturday night.

Here are the stories the two women tell:

Hides In Bushes

Miss Tregoff: Arriving at the Finch home, they waited on the lawn until Mrs. Finch drove up and parked in the garage. Mrs. Finch saw them, and pulled a gun from her purse. Miss Tregoff ran and hid in a clump of bushes, and saw nothing further. When police arrived later, she left quietly and drove back to Las Vegas.

Miss Marie Anna Lidholm, 19-year-old Swedish exchange student, who worked as maid: She was first alarmed by a terrifying scream from the garage.

"I heard Mrs. Finch cry for help, then scream again. I ran out past the pool, thinking she had fallen in, then went to the garage. I saw her lying on the floor. I thought she had fainted and ran to her.

"Then I saw Dr. Finch. His face was contorted with rage and he acted as if he didn't recognize me . . . I had started to bend down beside Mrs. Finch when he grabbed me and with tremendous force threw me clear up to the front of the garage. My head hit the wall and I don't remember what transpired for the next few minutes."

When she came to, the doctor was standing over her with a gun. He told her to get into a car and tried to force Mrs. Finch in, telling her, "So help me, I will kill you if you don't.".

Wife Runs

Instead, Mrs. Finch fled. The doctor ran after her.

"I ran into the house to call police. Just as they came on the wire, I heard a shot," Miss Lidholm said.

Khrushchev Calls Off His Scandinavian Tour

. . . He Apparently Expected Chilly Reception

Stockholm, Sweden (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev, blaming an unfavorable atmosphere in Scandinavia, has called off his scheduled 3-week August visit to 4 Nordic nations. The Soviet premier apparently thought he was going to get a chilly reception.

In notes delivered to the Swedish, Danish and Norwegian embassies in Moscow, the Soviet government lashed out at a host of Scandinavian politicians and editors for leading what was called a hostile "anti-Soviet campaign."

Planned To Take Wife

Khrushchev had planned to give his calls on his Scandinavian neighbors a folksy touch by bringing along his wife and two daughters. But he obviously hoped for political results, too.

He had his foreign ministry rap the 3 socialist-dominated governments for not curbing his bad press and the opposition plans for demonstrations. He also did not like the way they apologized for inviting him.

In reply, Danish Premier H. C. Hansen and Swedish Premier Tage Erlander said they had no power to gag the press in a free country.

Judge Wenke To Attend Seminar

Adolph E. Wenke, Justice of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, will be one of 21 high state and federal court judges from across the nation and Canada, who will participate in a special two-week seminar which began Monday at New York University's School of Law.

The seminar, now in its fourth year, is designed to give the judges an opportunity to look at their law work from the perspective of the classroom and to share their legal experiences.

INCOME HITS RECORD HIGH

Washington (AP)—Rising wage and salary payments pushed the personal income of Americans in June up to a record rate of $382,900,000,000 a year.

This total, reported Monday by the commerce department, represented a gain of $1,600,000,000 from May.

Most of the gain—all but 300 million dollars — came from an increase in hiring, rising wages and a slightly longer working week.

The increase was only about half as great as the average of the past few months, however, and some of it probably resulted from the steel industry's all-out effort to get as much metal made as possible before the long-threatened steel strike began last week.

Miss New Mexico Bolts Beauty Fete

. . . Raps Miss Universe Chaperone System

Long Beach, Calif. (AP)—A shapely redhead from Albuquerque, who defied her Catholic archbishop to enter the Miss Universe contest, abruptly quit Monday before it started.

Sue Simone Ingersoll, 22, whose dispute was over whether it is proper for a Catholic girl to wear a bathing suit in a public contest, indicated that had nothing to do with her withdrawal. Competition begines Tuesday and ends Friday.

Said Sue as she left the headquarters hotel to stay with friends: "I withdrew only because I didn't care to exchange one form of tyranny for another. I was held virtually a prisoner and incommunicado. I could no longer endure it."

No Leisure Time

Officials took this to be a knock at the rigid chaperone system. Contestants have chaperones with them at all times when they are not in their rooms. Their floor at the headquarters hotel is off limits to the public. Contestants' time is strictly budgeted and they have virtually no leisure.

Miss Ingersoll's roommate, Miss Eilleen Butler, representing Canada, said she was unaware of any tyranny.

"Why the contest officials bent over backwards trying to be nice to her," said Miss Canada. "She and I were roommates from our arrival last Thursday. I thought she was having a grand time."

Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne of New Mexico had held it improper for girls in his diocese to wear bathing suits in a public contest. The Miss Universe selections in Albuquerque were made in private.

Beauty Stylist

Miss Ingersoll, a hair stylist in a beauty parlor in her home town, issued a 4-page statement when she arrived. In it she said:

"For the good of my church and in the interest of understanding between all of us, I feel I have the serious responsibility to continue . . . I do not feel it is in any way immoral. Where the contest takes place, Catholics are allowed to enter."

By the latter remark she apparently meant that many other Catholic girls are contestants. Actually, about 25% of the 70 contestants are Catholic. No others have indicated they came here over church opposition.

Congressman Cuts Red Tape; Patricia Gets Books

Washington (AP)—After Patricia Vaughn's puppy chewed on two borrowed library books the Akron (Ohio) public library told her she would have to pay to replace them.

But after the 8-year-old turned in $5 she earned through odd jobs, the library refused to give her the dog-chewed books she had replaced, she complained in a letter to Rep. William H. Ayers (R-Ohio).

In explanation, Akron Librarian Russell Munn told Ayres "we are not permitted to sell public property." Anyway, he said, the books cost $6.70—not $5.

Sympathizing with the girl, Ayres bought the books—"The Happy Prince" and "Wicked John and the Devil"—for Patricia out of his own money. She should get them any day now.

Leahy Is Dead At 84

. . . FDR Chief Of Staff

Washington (AP) — Fleet Adm. William D. Leahy, former chief of naval operations, diplomat and wartime chief of staff to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, died Monday. He was 84.

Adm. Leahy.

Leahy, who topped the seniority list of the 5-star generals and admirals created toward the end of World War II, died of a brain hemorrhage at the Naval Medical Center in suburban Bethesda, Md.

President Eisenhower said the nation has lost an outstanding American and "I have lost a close friend."

"As a naval officer and a diplomat," Eisenhower's statement said, "Adm. Leahy dedicated his life to the service of his country in war and in peace. Mrs. Eisenhower and I join with the people of America in mourning his death."

Eisenhower ordered the flag flown at half staff on all government buildings and naval vessels as a tribute to Leahy. The body will lie in repose at Washington National Cathedral from noon Wednesday until noon Thursday, followed by formal burial services in Arlington national cemetery Thursday afternoon.

Farm Work Opportunities To Drop

. . . Ag Economist Tells Educators

Only one out of every three rural young men will have the opportunity to enter farming in the years ahead, Dr. Sherwood O. Berg, agricultural economist at the University of Minnesota, said Monday afternoon.

Speaking at the University of Nebraska conference on Patterns in Rural Education, he said the other two-thirds will have to acquire the skills to find employment in non-farming pursuits.

This means, he said, that the rural educator has an important role to fulfill. "The preparation and conditioning of rural young people to make the adjustment will be important. While all means of communication should be used, the most powerful is still personal address by competent and respected local leaders. There is none better than the local teacher."

More Mobility

More mobility of our rural population also will require an overhauling, remodeling, and rehabilitation of the entire system of vocational training in the rural districts, he explained.

"The basic object of our school system, then, is to provide a better educational program for more people at the most economical cost. Its primary purpose is not to abolish the one-room country school. However, it may be more economical to close the one-room school with a small enrollment and transport the pupils to a larger building with a larger staff and more facilities."

School reorganization may not result in lower final costs, he said. "If the pupil has the advantage of an expanded curriculum with a wider range of selection of courses, the program should cost more."

Good rural schools, he concluded, make good rural communities.

Ex-Auto Dealer At G.I. Is Dead

Grand Island, Neb. (AP) — Thomas F. Kinman, 81, retired longtime Grand Island auto dealer, dropped dead in the yard of his home.

Kinman was in the auto business here from 1934 until his retirement a few years ago. He was prominent in civic affairs and had been active in the Chamber of Commerce.

Survivors include his widow, one son and 4 daughters.

Prolonged Strike Would Hit Behlen

Columbus, Neb. (AP)—A prolonged steel strike would have the Behlen Manufacturing Co., Columbus, curtailing its operations possibly in 30 days, President Walter Behlen said.

The firm is getting into the period of the year when the need for steel is heaviest. Behlen said the company would get a partial supply from firms not strikebound and also uses some steel obtained from overseas.

Ruling Made

The attorney general ruled Monday that when a home for the aged or child care expands its operation from the ground floor to upper floors, more stringent fire safety measures under rules of the state fire marshal must be applied.

The opinion was for State Fire Marshal Joseph F. Divis.

Rites Held For Mrs. Fabrique, Accident Victim

Hastings, Neb. — Funeral services for Mrs. Olive M. Fabrique, 83, fatally injured in a traffic accident here, were held Monday.

A native of Illinois, she moved to Hastings a number of months ago from Nelson.

Surviving are daughters, Mrs. Marion Glassey of Hastings, who was injured in the same accident, Mrs. Roy Trenholm of Omaha and Mrs. Alvin Orr of Garden Grove, Calif.; 7 grandchildren and her brother, Roy Kelso of Euclid, O.

Her death was the first traffic fatality recorded in Adams County this year and the first in Hastings since August, 1957.

Lighted Flying Object Puzzles Trio At Nelson

Superior, Neb. (AP) — Three persons have reported seeing an unexplained lighted flying object.

Jim Chapman of Nelson said he saw the object about 10:30 p.m. as he was driving home from Oak. It turned when he did, Chapman said, and followed him as he drove along the road.

Chapman met Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kubicek who also were on their way to Nelson. They said the object followed the 3, changing directions several times and seeming to stop and start, before fading from view.

They said the object seemed to be round, lighted but not brightly, and to be several inches in diameter. It was at about a 30-degree angle in the sky and seemed to be about a quarter of a mile away.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

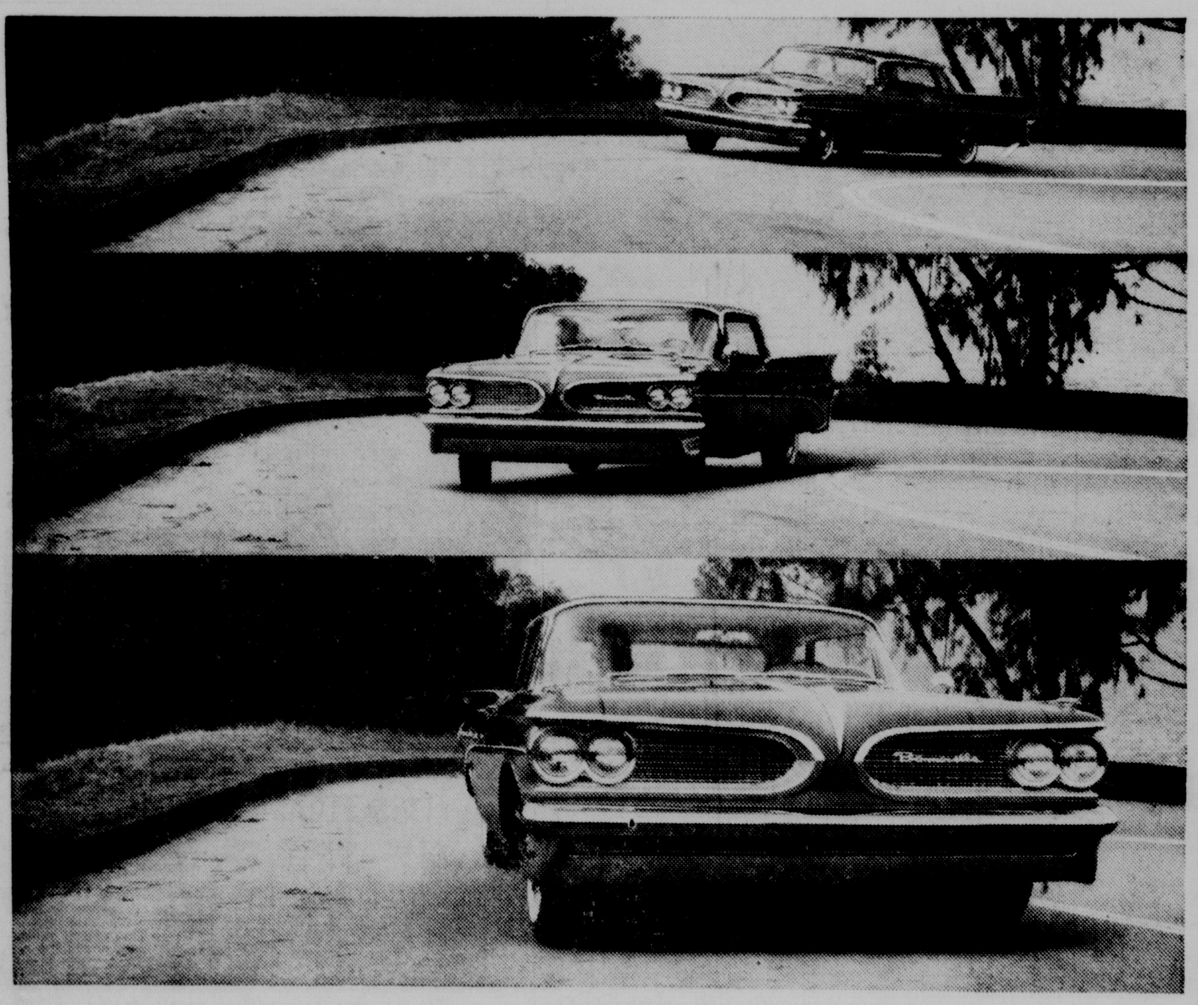
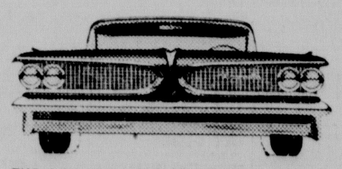
Makes all curves feel banked...



...the curve-hugging Wide-Track Pontiac!

It's been a long time since the public took to an automobile with the verve and vigor of the current admiration for Pontiac. It's now first in sales in its price class. Sleek beauty is one reason. Wide-Track Wheel design is another. The wheels are five inches farther apart to increase stability on curves and corners. It's a very simple, basic innovation yet the improvement it makes in your control of the car is remarkable. You're more comfortable than you've ever been in narrow track cars.

PONTIAC! AMERICA'S NUMBER (1) ROAD CAR



THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Dotted lines show conventional wheel positions. Pontiac's wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car itself. Pontiac hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean are considerably reduced, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier.
